THEME

This past year has been the first in which Beverly has known real war. This Watchtower is the first annual in the history of our school to be created during war times. As you read through the book, remember all of the "firsts" you have experienced because of the war. Through the theme, Beverly and the War, we have attempted to depict them. Bond rallies, scrap drives, defense courses, these are now as much a part of our school life as the sports and clubs. Red Cross projects and book collections were sponsored; war lecturers were enlisted to make clear to the student body the need of its "serving by conserving". Beverly, inspired, worked hard and well.

Joe Norman, alumnus, is also helping to win the war, his first war. Once a football hero or a batting champion, Joe now is on Uncle Sam's team, and we may be sure that he is fighting just as hard to bring the same glory to America that he formerly brought to Beverly.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

MR. BOWHAY

The work of the Board of Education this year has been geared to suit the needs of war-time Beverly. The Board authorized the sponsoring of the bond drives and various war agency drives.

Foremost among the major considerations of the year were the special war classes organized under its sponsorship. These classes included instruction in special mathematics, aeronautics, and precision instrument. A work program was devised whereby students employed in defense plants could at the same time continue their studies. In cooperation with the Navy the V-12 program was also sponsored.

Members of the Board of Education are Mrs. Dorothy C. Fess, president; Mr. R. M. Dulin, secretary; Mr. Wiley N. Caldwell; Mrs. Josephine H. Fitger; and Mr. Howard W. Reynolds.

ADMINISTRATION

This year we have seen many changes in our daily lives. These changes have occurred due to our country's transformation from a peace-time economy to a war-time economy. The opportunity for service and the need of sacrifice for the welfare of mankind was presented to every high school student. The reaction to the appeal was positive and was one in which every loyal Norman should feel proud that he had a part. It is your responsibility to see that the days ahead are filled with worthwhile accomplishments. Such accomplishments will help our country achieve victory and a lasting peace.

To those students who will be leaving us this year to take a more active part in the war effort we extend our best wishes. We trust that the training that you have received at Beverly Hills High School will be of great assistance to you in your future years.

This year Beverly dedicated itself to promoting the war effort. The splendid job it did is remarkable. The willingness, the spirit, and the efficient way the task was done is typical of Beverly. Graduating seniors will never forget the unity and spirit that prevailed here at school. As commencement drew near, I realized the many opportunities we had had in Beverly during the past four happy, instructive years. I only hope that those of you who will graduate in the future will take notice of your surroundings. Here at Beverly the students and instructors are finer than those to be found in any other high school.

In closing, on behalf of the student council and myself, I want to thank the faculty and the student body for the cooperation and the assistance we received this semester. The memories of having been president will remain with me always.

MAYFIELD HARRIS

Serving as a representative group, the council meets every month. It is made up of the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer of each class, in addition to the student body officers. The council, the highest organization of its kind in the school, is both a legislative and executive body.

Compiling and improving the budget was the first work of the student council at the start of the winter semester. The council also authorized the organization of the servicemen's correspondence committee, which, working in unison with the Highlights, sent letters and copies of the paper to Beverly's alumni in the services. The sponsoring of the Norman "E" award, given to students exerting themselves to service above and beyond the call of duty, was a task of the council.

The very successful bond drive was also held under the auspices of the council. Through this drive, and also through the council directed scrap drive, the students of Normandy made their first mass effort in the war. Both drives were very successful and launched Beverly on its "Schools at War" program.

We who are now graduating seniors came to Beverly four years ago as bewildered freshmen in a totally new atmosphere. When, as juniors, our nation entered the conflict, it was necessary to make important decisions. We have been forced in many cases to deviate from our original plans and select different fields for our life work. Thus, in little more than a year, we have made great strides in adjusting ourselves to new conditions. These achievements have not been made by ourselves alone, but they have been accomplished through the guidance of a friendly administration and the instruction of a cooperative faculty. In this respect we seniors owe a deep debt of gratitude.

In final tribute to Beverly I wish to extend my appreciation to you, the student body, for your unabating friendship and cooperation during my term as president the past semester. These are memories I can never forget.

The main task of the student council during the second semester was to change the method of electing the head yell leader. An auditioning committee was chosen to select candidates for the office and also to assist in choosing people to appear in the talent assembly.

This committee consists of the presidents of the Boys' and Girls' leagues, the presidents of the four classes, the presidents of the Alphas and Knights, and the president and vice-president of the student body. This group was authorized to choose from three to five people from the group trying out to appear on the ballot as candidates for the office of head yell leader.

In addition to this, six boys and five girls from the four classes were chosen as captains in the campus clean-up drive. Each captain was made responsible for the appearance of a certain area.

The members of the student council also played host to the Bay League Forum, which met at Beverly this year to discuss problems relating to school government and management during the war.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

Representing and composed of every girl at Beverly, the Girls' League is a most functional and active group. The Girls' league cabinet is made up of four elected officers and several appointed committee heads.

First activity on each semester's calendar is the Big and Little Sister Party at which new girls are entertained and introduced to the other girls. The Upper and Lower Grade Mothers' Teas are also sponsored by the Girls' League.

Two assemblies are held each year for the girls of Beverly; in addition to these a Christmas party is given for the children of the Albion Street school. This year the Girls' and Boys' leagues combined to present a dance for the entire student body. The Girls' League is sponsored by Miss Olive Jane McClure and Mrs. Leah K. Moore.

Headed by four officers elected each semester by the boys of Beverly, the Boys' League is rapidly assuming a place of greater importance in the make-up of the school.

Especially active this year, the league sponsored a noon dance, which was held in the girls' gym and arranged for the playing of popular records during the noon period. Four assemblies were presented for the boys under the auspices of the league. The boys joined with the Girls' league in a campus clean-up campaign and worked on this project with the student council and the Knights. The organization also helped curb the practice of wearing illegal lettermen's sweaters.

The Boys' League is sponsored by Mr. Kenneth C. Mitchell and Mr. William C. Morrison.

BOYS' LEAGUE

COURTS

Composed of three Senior A's and three Senior B's, the student court is the judicial branch of the student government at Beverly.

Created to deal with the different types of student misdemeanors, the court serves to warn and advise various offenders. The most numerous cases dealt with negligence. Persons failing to cooperate in the extensive student clean-up campaign were seriously dealt with, as were other students engaging in activities involving a display of poor citizenship. In several instances an entire group of students occupying one table at lunch was brought before the court and reprimanded for the untidy appearance of the section near its eating place.

It is always the desire of the court that its work decrease, and the excellent attitude of the student body this year has brought about a great reduction in cases.

John Roesch served as chief justice the first semester, and Dick Rowson held this same position the latter part of the year. Barbara Frisbee, Al Robbins, and Margy West were members of the court in the winter semester, while Betty Olerich, Mike Simmons, Seymour Thomas, and Joyce Wiard were summer semester judges in addition to Pat Holmes and Dick Rowson who served both semesters. Mrs. Mary Herron is the sponsor of the student court.

HALL GUARDS AND BOUNDS

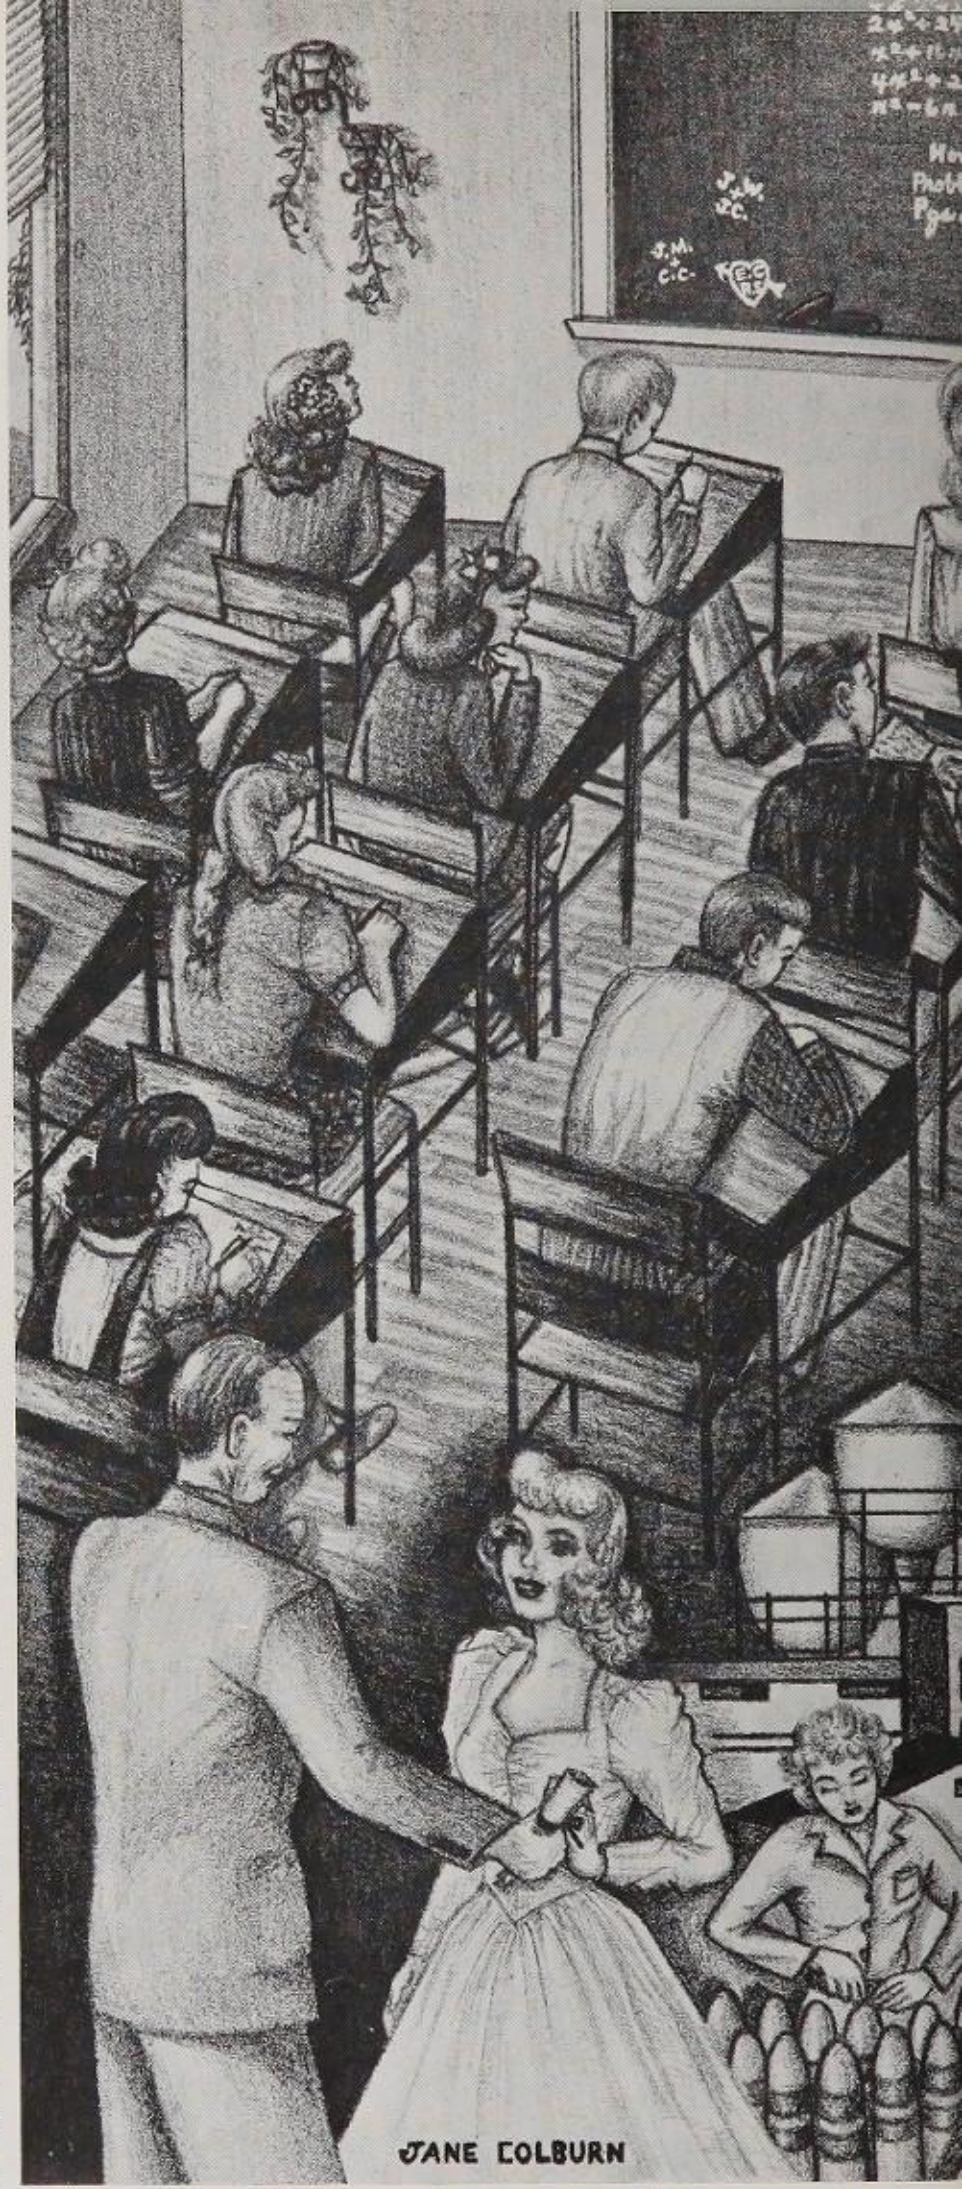

Operating to keep students out of the halls during the noon period and within the boundaries of the school are the hall guards and the bounds patrol. Both these groups are under the direction of the commissioner of safety.

Placed at strategic points at doors and within the halls, the hall guards keep the halls quiet and free from extensive student travel during lunch. The guards, under the leadership of Dwight Sale, have worked exceptionally well this year. The boys who served as hall guards this year were Karl Amlauer, Reginald Friedman, Melvin Levine, Howard Lipstone, Monte Marks, Marco Montemezzi, Neal Morgan, Alan Schnitzer, Malcolm Tedford, Ladd Vincent, David Walton, and Burton Wilner.

Because of the splendid student cooperation, it was possible to greatly diminish the size of the bounds patrol this year. To acquaint students with the exact limits of the campus, maps were printed showing the boundaries. A definite number of members was not appointed to the bounds patrol this year because of the limited necessity for such a body; so the hall guards functioned in this capacity.

The two commissioners of safety under whose direction these duties were accomplished were Bill Shelton and Peter Frank. The hall guards and bounds patrol are sponsored by Mr. William C. Morrison and Mr. Jack Schwartz.

COLOR DAY

The curtain rose on the senior show with students of 1000 B. C. in the midst of an awards assembly. K. C. Mitchell, portrayed by Stan Zimmelman, was the hit of the act. Throughout the show appeared the ever interfering Jap, Bob Iverson, who brought screams of laughter at every appearance.

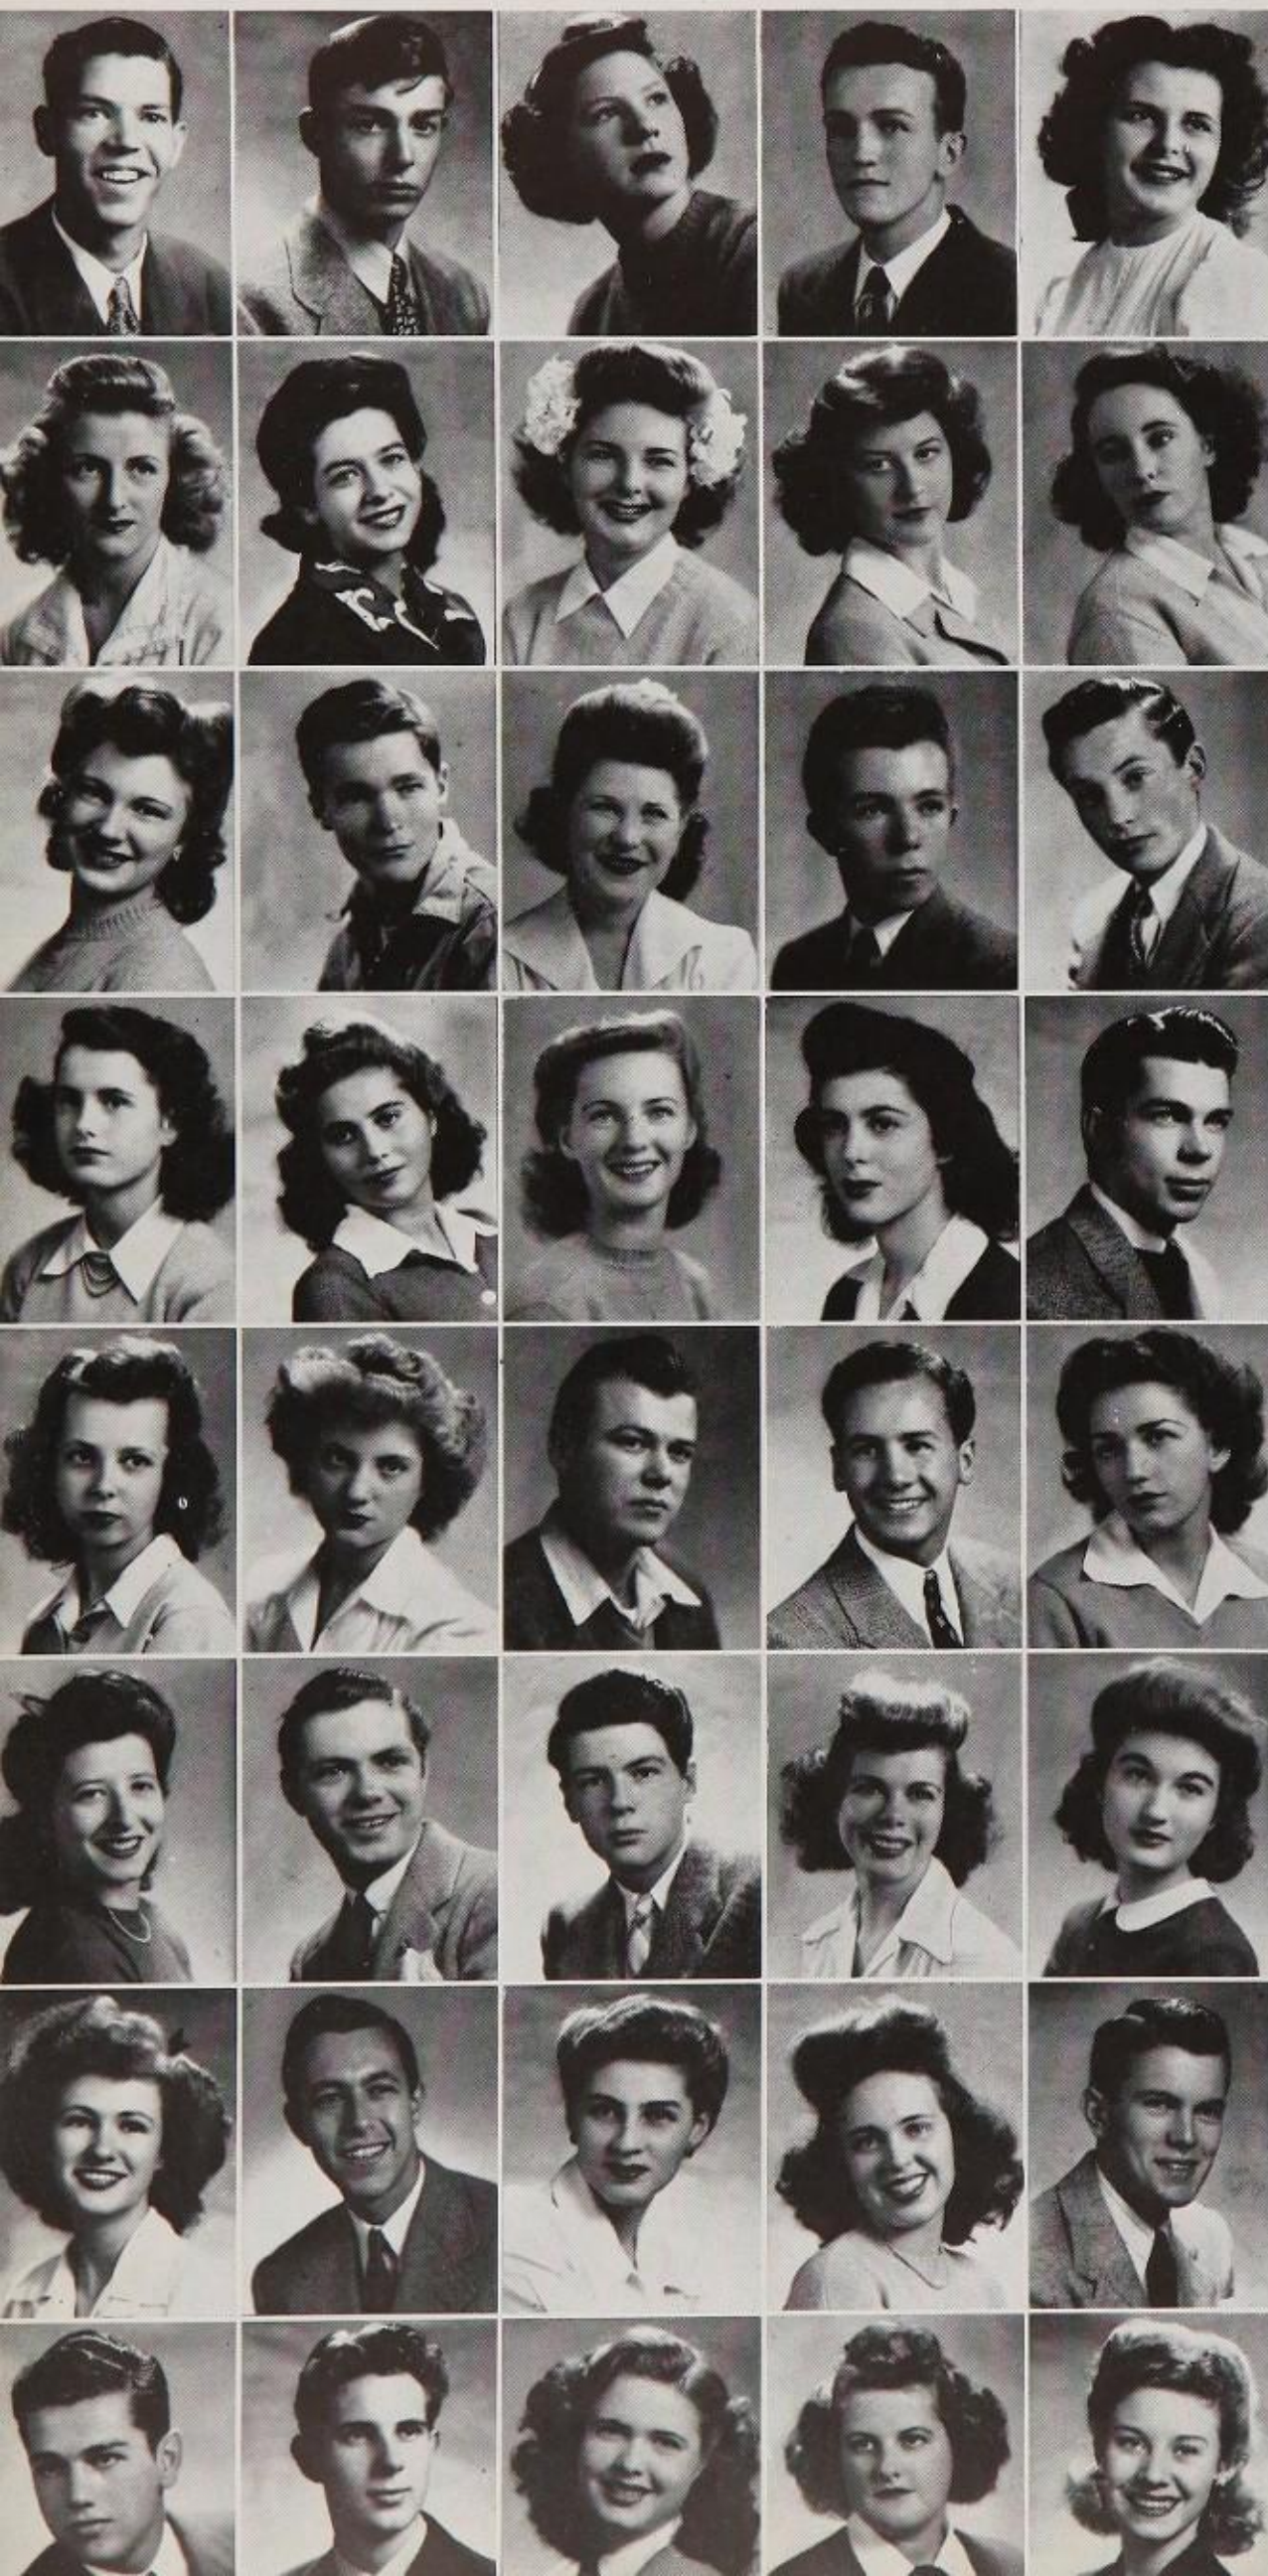

In the Egyptian Age the formidable Arabians proved to be "The Sheiks of Beverly". The Dark Ages featured Rhumbula dancers and songs by Ray Palange and Jean Gallagher. Nonsensical humor highlighted the Macbeth Period. The colorful Gay Nineties Act took place in a cafe. Master of ceremonies, Bob Breen, introduced a hilarious melodrama, singing waiters, and lavishly dressed Can-Can girls.

In modern times ensigns and their sweethearts danced to the beautiful waltz, "One Kiss and Then Goodbye", sung by Shirley Anderson and Hillman Mitchell. The finale supposedly took place in the parking lot where the seniors of '43 wore their crystal blue sweaters and sang their class song written by Ruth Krick and Barbara Frisbee.

Jimmy Higson's orchestra furnished the musical background. Credit for the show goes to Miss Harriet Louise Touton and to the student director, Janet Bone.

Captain Don McKenzie, fullback. Rounding out the clan of McKenzies who have operated in athletics at Beverly, Don proved himself to be a real tartar. A stand-out both on offense and defense, "Mac" was a constant inspiration to his teammates. John Roesch, left-half. "Greatest running back in the history of Beverly"—this phrase sums up "Jarrin Jawn" Roesch, swivel-hipped powerhouse who accumulated 41 points throughout the season. Roesch's second string All-Bay League rating was a rank insult. Most valuable player, modest John will long be remembered by Norman pigskin fans. Bob Iverson, right-half. Fastest man on the squad, "Ivey" was an elusive eel. Despite his 135 pounds, Iverson was a devastating blocker. Tom Henn, quarterback. A vital cog in this year's offensive machine was senior signal caller Henn.

In Tommy, Beverly loses a sharp passer and p.a.t. artist. Chet Wondries, half-back and q.b. Jack of-all positions, Chet was a rugged fundamentalist. A savage blocker and tackler, Wondries made it difficult for anyone to fill his place. Roger Stancliff, left-end. Climaxing four years of brilliant football, "Gopher" was named first string All-Bay League end.

Don McKenzie

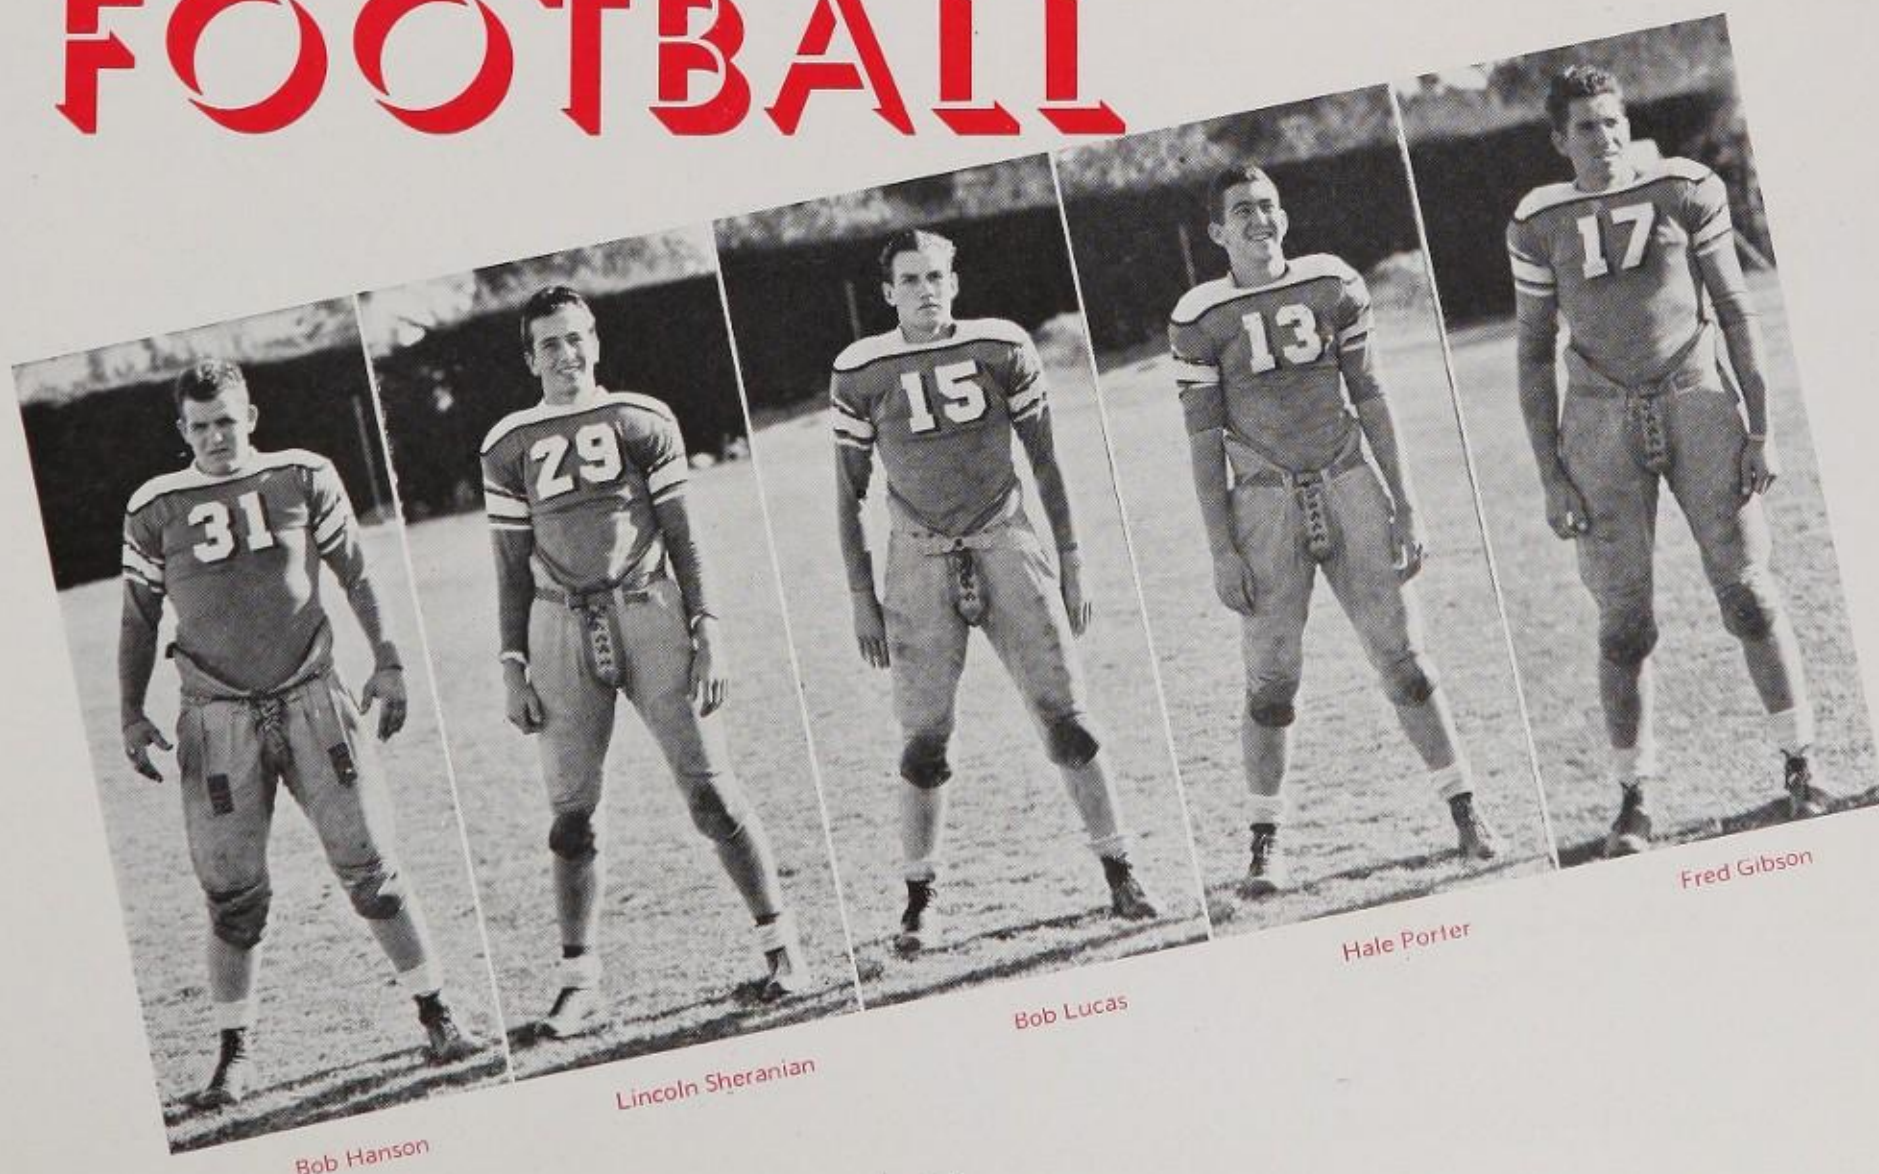

Smiling, affable Coach Max Glass, although not producing a championship outfit, could always be counted on to give the boys a mental lift.

Bob Hanson, center. "Burly Bob" could change from a likeable lamb to a wild bull. Major beef-trust of the team, Hanson will be the mainstay of next year's team. Lincoln Sheranian, right-guard. From bench warmer to regular is the gridiron tale of Mr. Sheranian. Most improved player, "Link" was a defensive demon. Bob Lucas, left-guard. A deadgame scrapper, Lucas received All Bay League honorable mention. The experience Bob gained this year will benefit the '43 eleven. Fred Gibson, right-tackle. Moved from end to tackle to fill the vacancy left by John Graham, Fred was a 60 minute stalwart. Quiet, reserved Gibson relied on the adage, "Action speaks louder than words." Hale Porter, left-tackle. Blanket award winner in '41, "Pete" has been the best lineman two years running. A deadly tackler and hole opener deluxe, Porter has yet to meet his equal. Five capable reserves were Jim Knecht, Ken Brittingham, Bob Olds, Dave Lyman, and Dewey Tackaberry, while Stan Zimmelman and Malcolm Florence were the lone backfield reserves.

VARSITY

Winding up the current league season in third place, the 1942 Beverly varsity enjoyed the distinction of being the unluckiest team in the Bay League.

Opening the season at Santa Barbara, a hopeful little band of awed gridsters came out on the short end of a 26-6 decision. Lone Norman score came in the waning minutes when Tom "Nose" Henn passed to Kenny Brittingham in the end zone. Bloated over their unexpected showing against the Dons, the Normans were rudely shocked by Burbank, 20-0, on the victor's turf.

With two practice losses to their credit the varsity exploded against Compton in its first league tussle, 25-6. Sub-guard Dewey Tackaberry's touchdown sprint on a pass interception was the highlight of the game. Continuing their winning ways, Inglewood was smashed, 25-0. It was a case of too much Johnny Roesch when the latter chalked up 13 points in the first quarter. A scrappy Mark Keppel eleven held the Normans to a 6-6 deadlock in a thrill-packed contest on the Beverly sod. Beverly, now on top of the Bay League, bowed to mighty Redondo, 7-6. Beverly rallied on Roesch's 39 yard jaunt, while CIF champs scored on a disputed pass interference penalty. Leaving their game on the Seahawk field, the locals fell prey to Santa Monica, 34-0. Joe Duncan and Mickey King, ebony starlets, led the rout of Beverly. Still wallowing in the doldrums, the varsity gridsters were upset by the Leuzinger Olympians, 18-12, in the season finale.

FOOTBALL

Beverly's gridiron warriors staged many a thrilling battle, but not many compared to the Mark Keppel contest which ended in a 6-6 deadlock. Johnny Roesch put Beverly out in front in the second quarter when he tallied from the 3 foot line after Captain Don McKenzie had romped 39 yards down the sideline to set up the score. The Aztecs roared back in the third stanza and ripped through the Beverly forward wall repeatedly. Pay off came when Tom Farmer slipped through a huge opening for 7 yards and a touchdown.

Upper photo shows Bob Iverson, tricky right-half, being nailed for no gain. Tom Henn (7) runs up to play as John Roesch (3) watches from ground. In background are Eric Blore (32) and Bob Lucas (15).

Although not a championship outfit, the '42 bee pigskin aggregation boasted many stars.

Brightest luminaries in the backfield were Captain Bert Downs, head field general and a wicked pass snagger, and Bob Hennessey, running and tackling specialist. The work of such gridders as Dick O'Leary, topnotch passer, and Mickey Titus and Jim Powers, freshman flashes, cannot be overlooked. Bob "Hard Luck" Wood, Dick Murray, and Stan Maurseth rounded out the backfield.

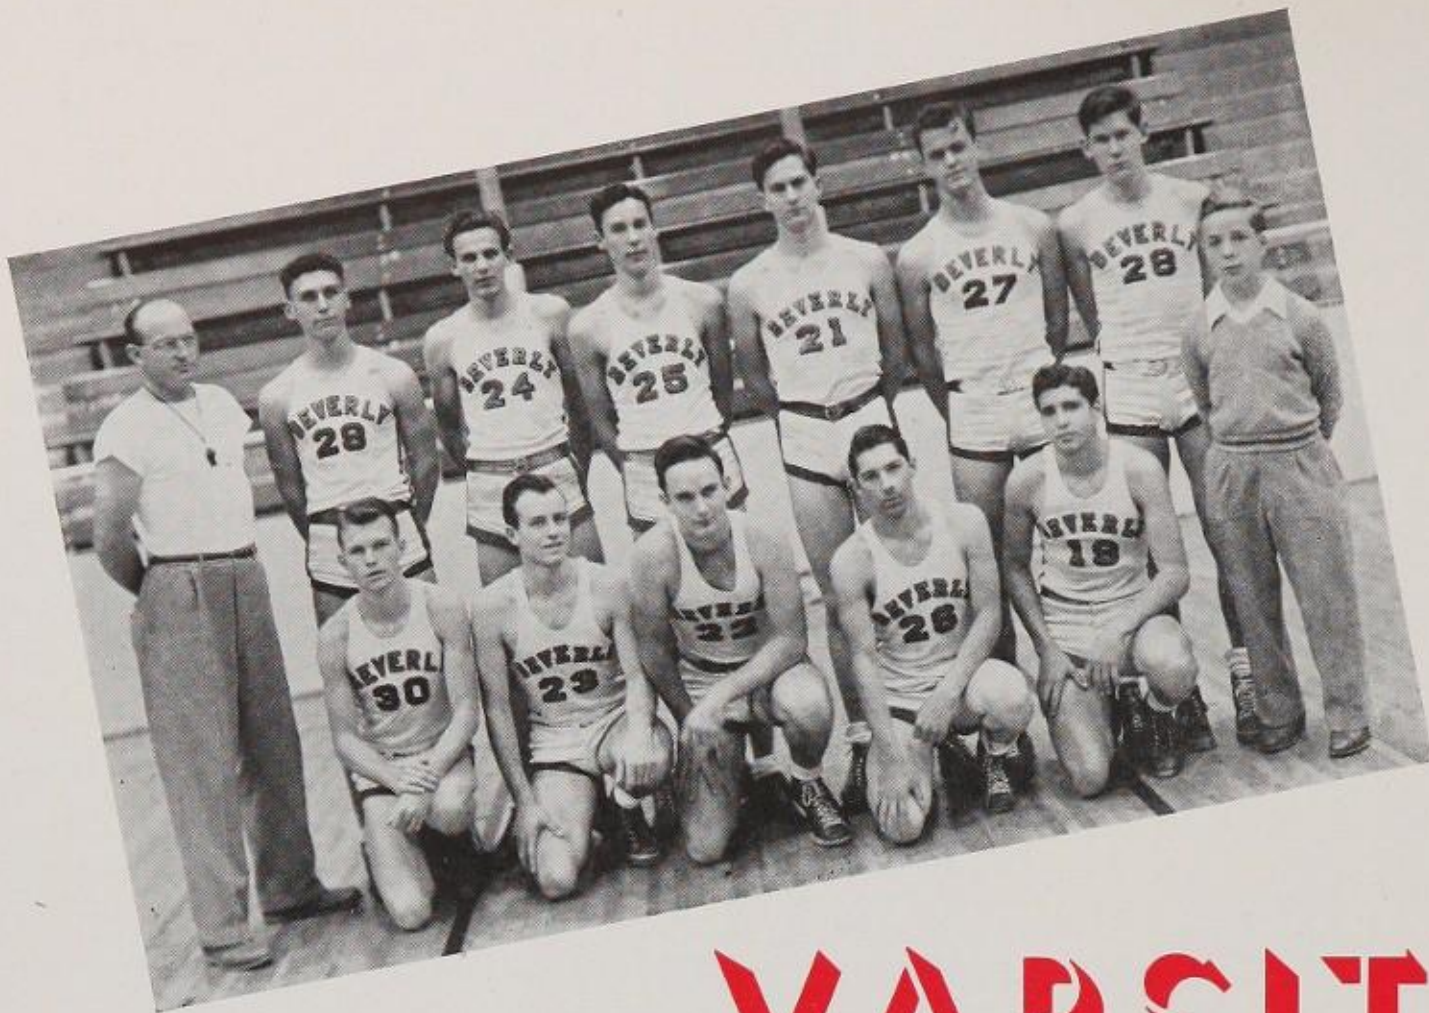

In the forward wall, Mal Klein and Drew McConnell were towers of strength at tackles. Jim Anderson and Tike Tinsman handled the end assignments to perfection, while Dick "Iron Man" Beesemeyer was stalwart at center. Arnold Leckman and Don Newmark were scrappy guards. Chuck Brauel and Fred Swenson played steady ball in the line.

Surprising everyone, the Norbabes opened the season by belting Loyola, 6-0. Bert Downs passed to Bob Hennessey for the score. A potent Burbank team held the bees to a 12-12 deadlock, as Dick O'Leary completed thirteen passes. Riding on the crest of their unexpected successes, the lightweights were rudely shocked by Compton, 32-0. Not having recovered from the Tartar nightmare, the bees fell prey to Inglewood, 18-6, on the local sod. Trekking to Mark Keppel, the lightweights were edged, 7-6. Downs catapulted over the line for the lone Norbabe tally. Tired of losing, the bees sharpened their fangs for undefeated Samohi. With Tike Tinsman and Mickey Titus scoring the touchdowns the lightweights upset the Vikings, 12-7. Falling from the heights they reached at Santa Monica, the bees dropped their final game to Leuzinger, 19-7, thus clinching the cellar spot in the league.

Getting underway against Mark Keppel, the varsity was defeated, 42-33. South Pasadena smothered the Norman cagers, 51-34, and then the locals won a shaky 22-21 decision over Long Beach Jordan. Returning home, Beverly bowed to Loyola, 28-21. Los Angeles High was soundly trounced, 41-25, to end the practice season.

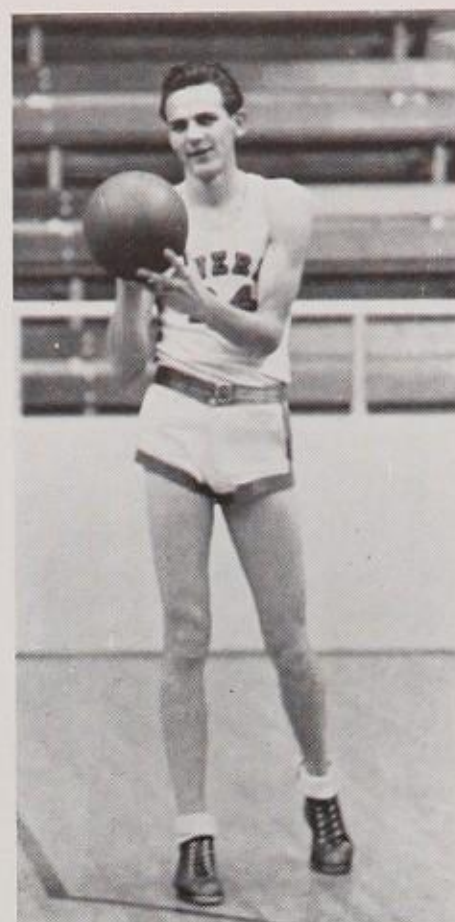

In a loosely played melon fest Beverly fell to Santa Monica, 32-21. Improving slightly, the Norman five dropped a 25-19 verdict to Redondo and then managed to vanquish Leuzinger, 36-35. Compton was the next victim, 43-32, as Jerry Willner tallied 22 points to tie the school scoring record. The Senior-A's bowed out of the casaba picture as Beverly nipped Inglewood, 36-33.

Beverly's revamped quintet was squeezed out by Samohi, 25-22, to start the second round. Redondo made it two straight by winning, 46-35. Leuzinger grabbed a 34-27 victory, and the Compton Tartars spilled the Beverlyite squad, 51-18. Closing the season against Inglewood, Beverly lost out to the Sentinels in a close contest, 39-37. DeJong racked up 22 markers to tie Willner's record.

Stan Zimmelman

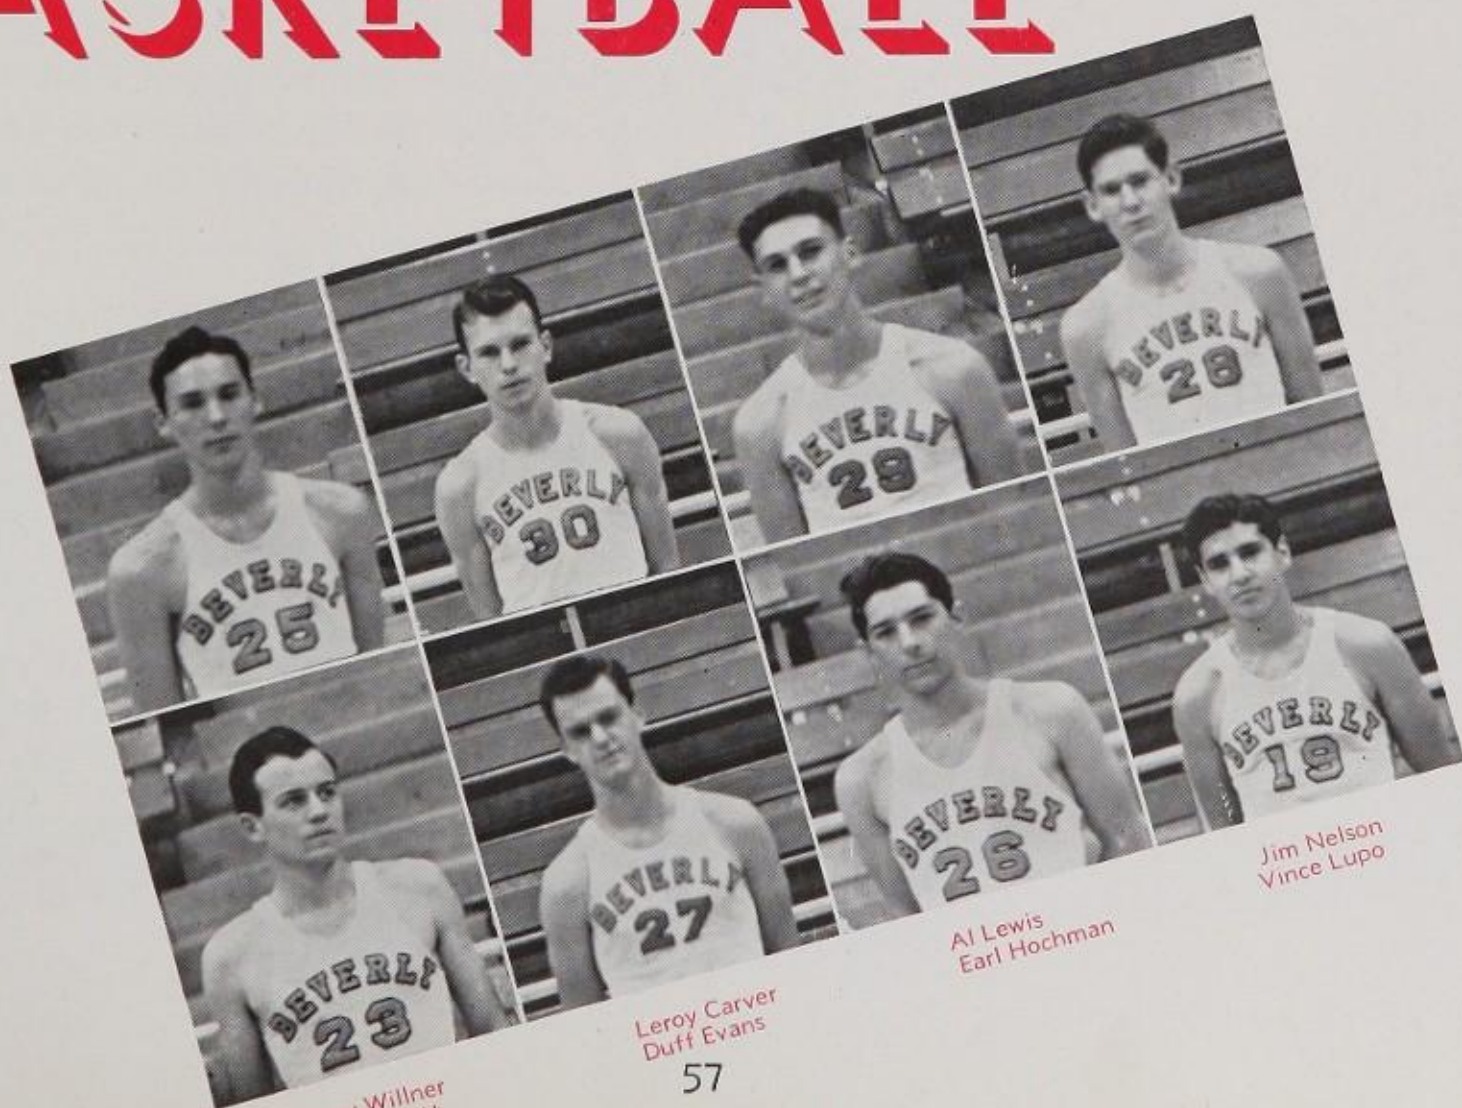

Howard DeJong

Co-Captain Stan Zimmelman, guard. Zimmelman was injured before the league season commenced. A two year letterman, Stan was a great loss to the team. Jerry Willner, forward. Ranked as the team's most dependable man, Jerry dealt the Beverly quintet a shattering blow when he departed in midseason. Leroy Carver, guard. Smoothest ball handler on the team, "Slicker's" fine play drew for him All-Bay League honorable mention. Al Lewis, guard. Hard work and doughty determination made Lewis an excellent floorman. Jim Nelson, guard. The "character of the courts" unorthodox brand of ball earned for him All-Bay League honorable mention. Rod Sackett, forward. Rod was an aggressive sharpshooter who was death inside the foul circle. Duff Evans, center. Duff, an in-and-outer who should be terrific, is next year's captain. Irl Hochman, forward. Three more inches would have made this pint-sized deadeye a court marvel. Vince Lupo, guard. Only a sophomore, Lupo has two more big years of basketball. Co-Captain Howard De Jong, forward. League leader in scoring, De Jong was the backbone of the Beverly squad. First string All-Bay League forward was Howard's reward for his torrid brand of ball.

BEE BASKETBALL

Led by Co-Captains Dick O'Leary and Stuart Willner, the bee cassabateers finished the league season in fourth place.

Bay League competition found the lightweights bowing to Samohi twice, 37-27 and 33-22. Beverly proved vulnerable to Redondo, 17-15 and 26-21. Swamping Leuzinger, 30-17 and 27-22, the Norbabes were then eked out by Compton in a 34-32 thriller. The Tartars took the second game, 29-28. Breaking the Beverly bee scoring record, Dick O'Leary garnered 17 points to lead the lightweights in a 27-13 rout of Inglewood. The Sentinels grabbed the second contest, 37-35.

A record was set by the cee and dee melon squads, who launched and completed their season at the Redondo Basketball Tournament on December 10.

With Dick Brauer and Al Clark scoring 8 and 7 points respectively, the cees downed Inglewood, 26-12, in their first game. Met by a veteran Redondo team, the flyweights succumbed by a 36-12 margin. Pat Kerrigan tallied four markers for the losers.

Unlike the cees, the dees smeared Redondo, 12-11, as Jack Ince and Dick Robbins paced the victors with four points each. Going into the finals, the flea-weights were toppled by Inglewood, 25-11.

Varsity

Captain Johnny Moffat. A courageous leader, Moffat was a consistent winner in the sprints and broad jump.

Joe Feldman, shot put. When right, Joe was a prodigious pellet pusher. Spencer Nelson, high jump. Tall, tow-headed Nelson was an accomplished high jumper. Jack Conterno, shot-put. Conterno had the best mark in the Bay League. Bob Olds, hurdles. One of the most outstanding timber toppers in the league, Olds sprained his ankle in the league prelims. Larry McKeon, high jump. McKeon is headed for C.I.F. honors in this event. Dave Gill, broad jump. Bee co-captain, Gill garnered many points in the long leap. Bill Morton, 440. Stocky Billy was a rapid quarter-miler. Bob Jones, low hurdles. "Big Bob" was the school's best low hurdler. Sterry Fagan, 660. Sterry was a valuable point gainer in the half-mile. Dick Rubin, sprints. Dick was a bee champ who ran varsity.

Coach Charles Brown. The genial spike sponser produced his best in the bee aggregation.

Enjoying a successful dual meet season but falling down miserably in the Bay League finals, Coach Brown's varsity tracksters could hardly term the '43 season as anything but mediocre.

A 64-40 win was recorded over Redondo in the first meet of the year. Leuzinger fell easy prey, 88½ to 14½. The Normans then placed second to Inglewood in a five-way meet on the victor's field. Captain John Moffat roared to a 10 flat century and a 22.3 furlong win as the spikesters trampled Harvard Military, 73-32. Samohi commenced to tip Beverly on the local oval, 64½-39½. The Inglewood Relays proved a nightmare to both coach and team alike. South Pasadena rolled over the weakened cinder forces, 86-19. Bob Allen's tie for first in the high jump, Bob Matteson's fifth in the high hurdles, and Jack Conterno's fourth in the shot put were the only places the Normans received in the league finals.

TRACK

Undeclared all year, the Beverly bees grabbed the Bay League title and at press time are potent contenders for the C.I.F. title.

Amassing 55½ points, the Norbabes placed as follows: Dick Rubin, 100 and 220, first; Co-captain Sterry Fagan, 660, first; Co-captain Dave Gill, broad jump, first, and shot put, fourth; Bob Palmer, 100 and 220, second; Jim Blakely, 660, second; Larry McKeon, high jump, second; Fred Hessel, high hurdles, second; Mickey Titus, broad jump and low hurdles, third; Roger Anderson, 100, fifth; Bert Downs and Don Hulbert, pole vault, fifth (tie).

BEE

CROSS COUNTRY

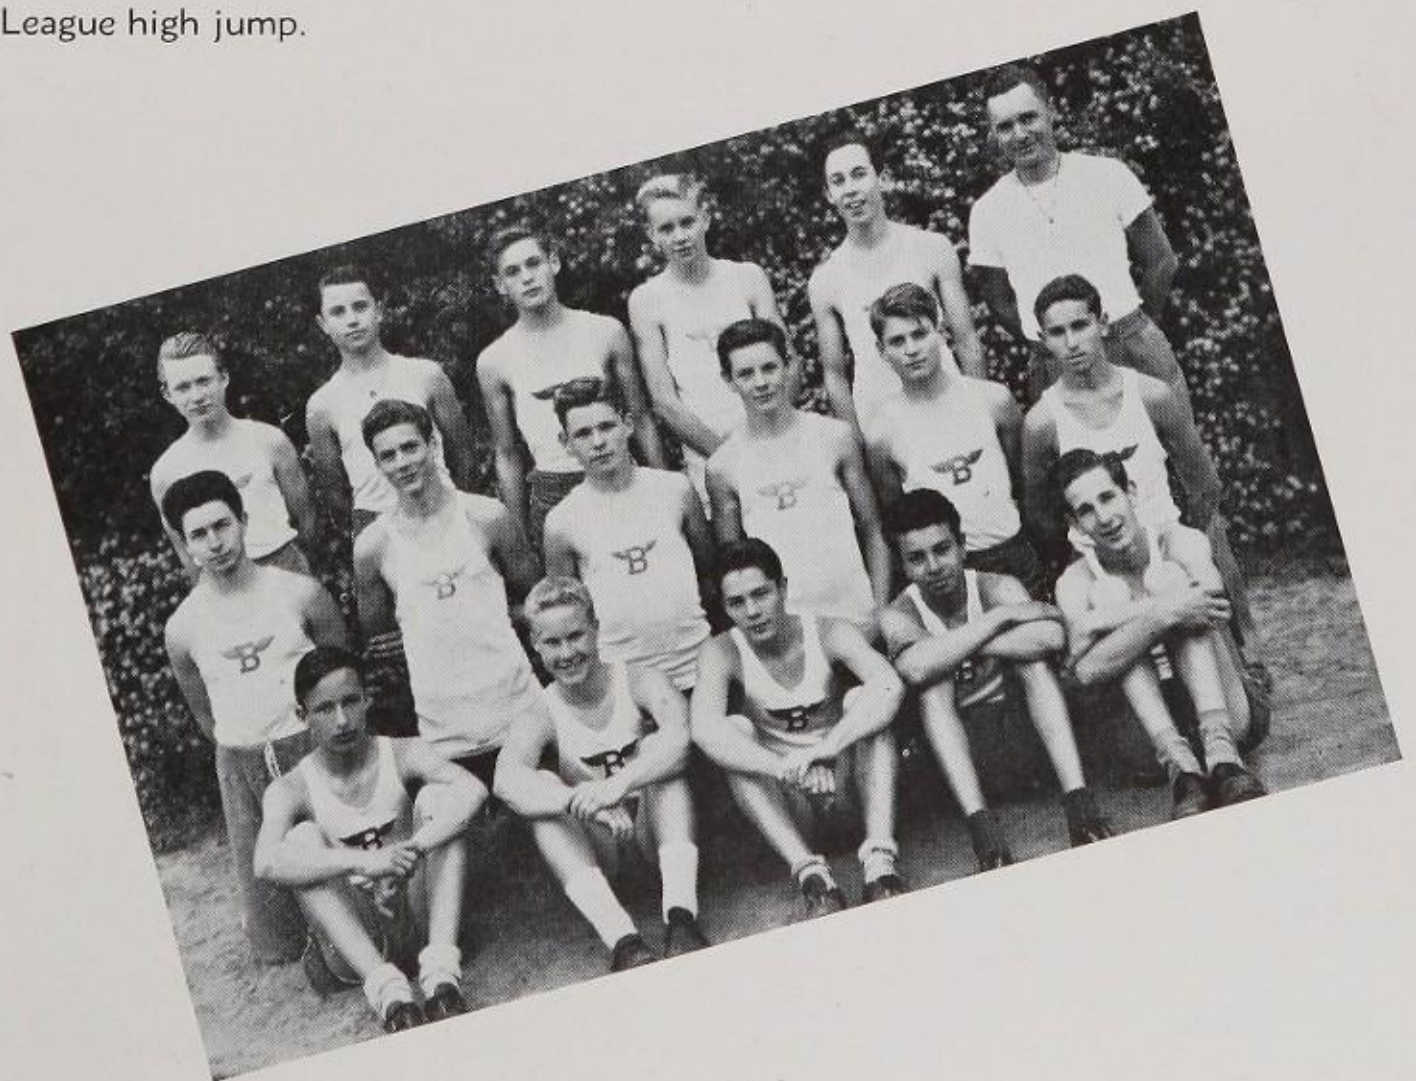

Sparked by Captain Bob Jones, who tied the school record of 14.1 in winning the low hurdles in the league finals, the cees struggled through an average season.

Bowing to Redondo, Leuzinger, and Inglewood in that order, the midgets finally scored victories over Harvard and Santa Monica.

Consistent point winners were Jones in the low hurdles and 100 yard dash; Dick Daniels, who took a fifth in the Bay League fifty yard dash; Ruth Sapien, bagging fourth in the league 660; and Dick Brauer, nabbing thiird in the Bay League high jump.

Paul Hochman

Co-captain Paul Hochman. The brother of the "Mole" was a determined leader and the team's best hitter. Co-captain Earl Hochman. "Mole" roved in the outfield, and there was none better.

Bill Rogers, left-field. Husky Rogers was always a potential Babe Ruth. Jim Powers, second-base. A scrapper, Powers will be good. Hugh Gallagher, pitcher. Fast and erratic, Gallagher must settle down. Steve Gross, catcher. A natural ball-player, young Gross had a lot of savvy. Jack Ince, pitcher. A regular starter, little Jack has three years ahead of him. Dick Estep, right-field. Dick was outstanding as a long range clutch hitter. Jerry Gross, catcher. An in-and-outer, Gross caught well. Dick Rosenblum, first-base. "Rosey," a good baseball man, was in there playing every minute. Jerry Jones, third-base. A broken ankle kept Jones from seeing much service. Armin Wertheimer, pitcher. Wertheimer played a relief role during the league.

Beverly's own "bums," referring to this year's varsity horsehiders, settled into the slump they occupied prior to the '42 season by winning only three out of fifteen games. Plagued by injuries which left inexperienced hands in charge of the diamond duties, Coach Al Klein did a remarkable job.

Getting underway against Loyola, the Normans were smeared, 8-2. Santa Monica followed suit the next week, 7-0; Beverly grabbed a victory over Santa Monica, 2-1, and then bowed to Loyola again, 5-1. Revenge was wrought when the Klein clan plundered the Vikings, 6-5. Two successive losses to Santa Monica ended the practice season.

Baffled by Duke Snider's slant, the local nine surrendered to Compton, 6-0. Inglewood then crushed the Normans, 9-0. Beverly's victory-starved baseballers trampled Redondo, 7-2, but groveled before Samohi, 12-2. Beverly's contribution to the national pastime ended a dismal season by losing to Leuzinger, 4-1.

SWIMMING

One of the strongest swim squads in the state, Beverly's varsity mermen ended on top of the Bay League.

The practice season found Beverly's swimmers copping the C.I.F. Invitational Relays in the Norman pool. Karl Henning, Captain Marc Robert, Jim Utterback, and Rube Wolf cracked the 4 man 200 yard mark. Blasting Whittier, Leuzinger, Inglewood, Santa Monica, Redondo, and Los Angeles in that order, the heavyweight paddlers were nipped only by Hollywood and Occidental College.

Headed for the C.I.F. championship, the varsity finished as follows in the Bay League: Captain Robert, 50 freestyle, first; Jim Utterback, 100 freestyle, first (new league record, 56.2); Don Hester, 100 breaststroke, first; Rube Wolf, 220 freestyle, first; Utterback, diving, first; Wolf, 75 yard individual medley, first (new league record, 44 flat); John Baldwin, Robert, Utterback, and Wolf, 4 man 200 relay, first; Dick Hyde, Hester, and Robert, medley relay, first; John Moffat, 50, fourth, and diving, third; Baldwin, 50 and 100 freestyle, second; Dick Weevil, diving, second; Hyde, 100 backstroke, second; Drew McConnell, 100 backstroke, third; Bud Jennings, 100 backstroke, fifth.

In winning, the varsity amassed 84 points.

BEE SWIMMING

Overshadowed by the brilliant varsity stars, the bees were not outpointed as they breezed through the Bay League finals with a staggering 77 points and first place. Like the varsity, the bees are pointing for the CIF title.

Results of the bee Bay League swimming: Jim Higson, 50, first, and 100, second; Cliff Hughes, 220 freestyle, first; Keith Morehart, diving, first; Burt Rogers, 100, first, and 50, third; Bob Smith, 100 backstroke, first; Bert Downs, 100 breaststroke, second; Bo Roos, 50 freestyle, second; Ray Simon, diving, second; Dave Bruns, 100 backstroke, second; Downs, Hughes, Rogers, Roos, 4 man 200 relay, first; Bruns, Downs, Hughes, medley relay, first; Sam Allenberg, 100 backstroke, fourth; Eddie Major, 220 freestyle, fourth.

Only lightweight records to fall were those of the 100 yard backstroke and 100 yard breaststroke. These two feats were accomplished by Rube Wolf, who swam 1:07.2 and 1:09.8 respectively.

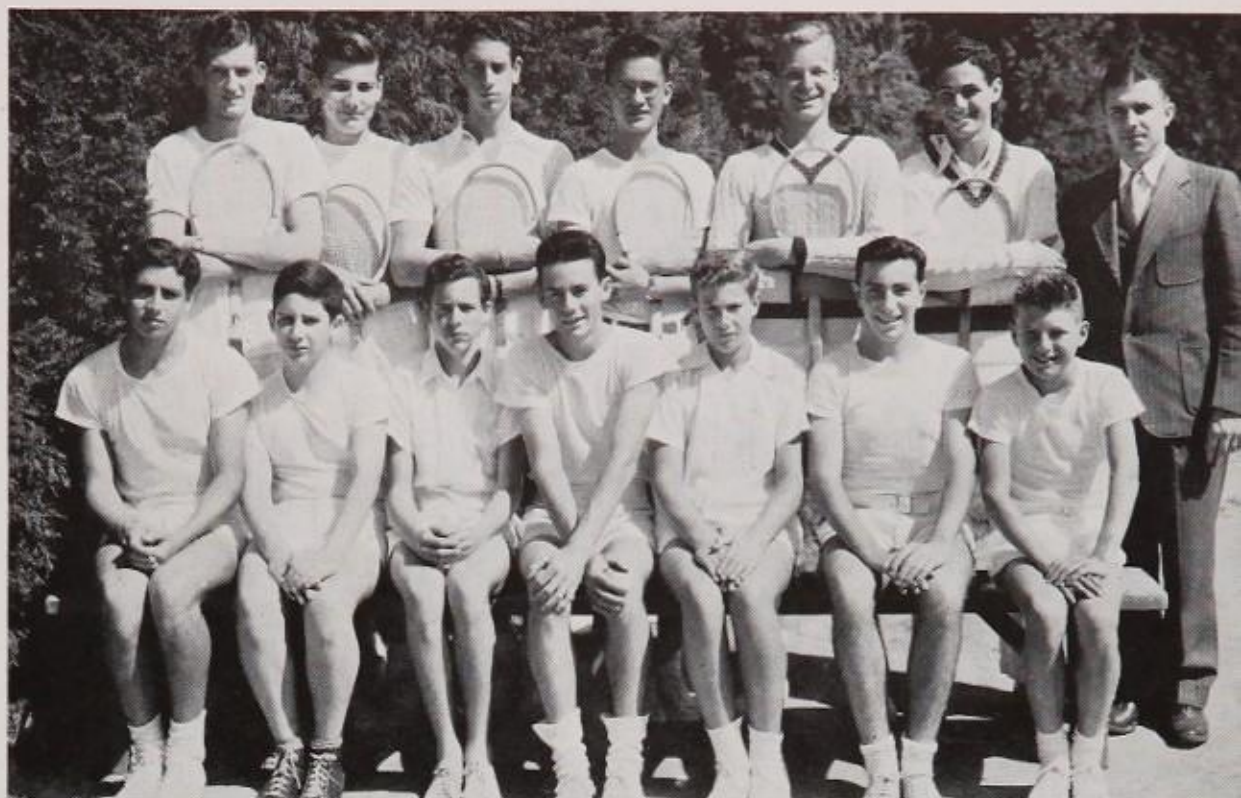

CEE SWIMMING

Completing the cycle of Bay League champs, the cees were not to be denied as they swept every first place to take the title. After amassing 45 points in the Bay League, Beverly's midget mermen are favorites to cop the C.I.F. crown.

Results of the cee Bay League swimming: Jack Fahnestock, 50 freestyle, first (new Bay League record, 26.8); Richard Rex, 50 breaststroke, first; Gil Wayne, 50 breaststroke, second; Rex Rifking, and Wayne, medley relay, first; Caldwell, Douglass, Eckstein, Fahnestock, 4 man 100 yard relay, first; George Eckstein, 50 freestyle, second; Robert Rifkind, 50 freestyle, fourth.

Don Hester, who took the Varsity 100 yard breaststroke, came within .2 of cee Bay League record in the 50 breaststroke by swimming 33.5.

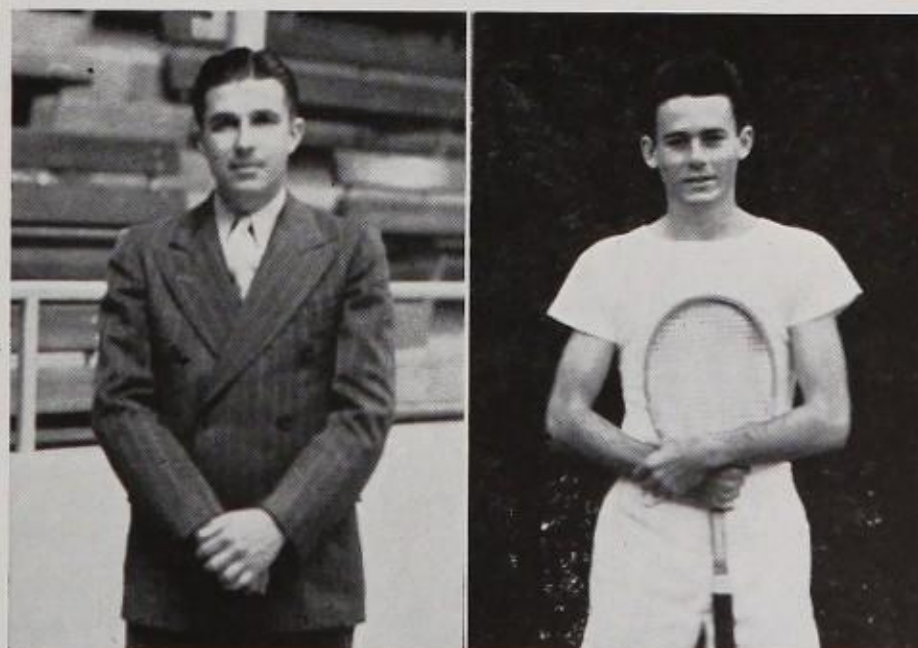

TENNIS

Already having taken the bee and cee C.I.F. net titles, the varsity racqueteers are overwhelming favorites to gain this coveted award.

Starting way back in October, the varsity tennis team started a string of victories that at press time had not been broken. Led by Herby "Little Flea" Flam, the tennis lads toppled University and Mark Keppel. Launching their regular season, we find the Mitchellmen captained by Mike Simmons and paced by Flam taking Montebello into camp, 11-0. South Pasadena fell, as Corman, Flam, Schlesinger, and Simmons were successful in singles, while Phil Cagan—Al Clark, John Kerr—Vince Lupo, and Gil Seton—Dewey Tackaberry were victorious in doubles. A 9-1 defeat was handed the Santa Monica Vikings on the local courts. Kerr, third singles, was the only loser. Minus Flam and Simmons, Beverly still managed to smear Inglewood, this time by the score of 7-2. Beverly finally managed to belt the team who had been winning the C.I.F. from them for the three years, for Santa Barbara was tripped, 7-2, on the Beverly courts. Flam won a thrilling match from Wright, first singles, 6-2, 2-6, and 9-7.

GOLF

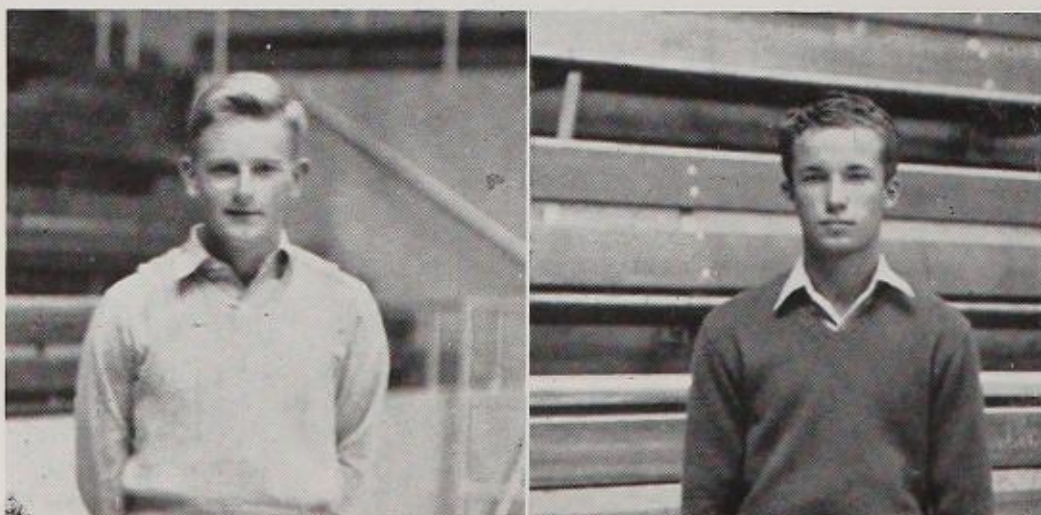

By trampling all opposition under foot, Beverly's linksmen drove to their seventh consecutive Bay League championship. This year's squad, built around an experienced nucleus, left no doubt as to Beverly's supremacy on the fairway.

On top of the ladder was the brilliant Murray Smith, stocky transfer from Chino High. Second man was an uncertainty all year with three experienced lettermen in line for the position. Co-captains Pat Davis and Bill Shelton, along with Howard Winton, were all hitting in the high "70's" consistently. Art Diebert held down the fifth spot and was followed by Bill Wilson and long-hitting Billy Anderson. Hampered all year by illness, "Andy" reached his peak form by upsetting the dope bucket in annexing the Inglewood Invitational Driving Contest.

Highlight of the year was the dual match at Recreation Park in Long Beach. Although losing to Woodrow Wilson by a scant margin, the squad averaged a cool 77, thereby setting a new Normandy record. Also commendable were two straight victories over the U.C.L.A. Varsity combination.

The team began its practicing at the now defunct Westwood Hills Course, later moving to Cheviot Hills. Taking over the reins of the team for the first time was Coach Max Glass, who did an admirable job.

Seniors Davis, Shelton, Wilson, and Winton will be sorely missed, but the return of Diebert, Smith, and possibly Anderson should help in molding another sensational sextet for next spring.

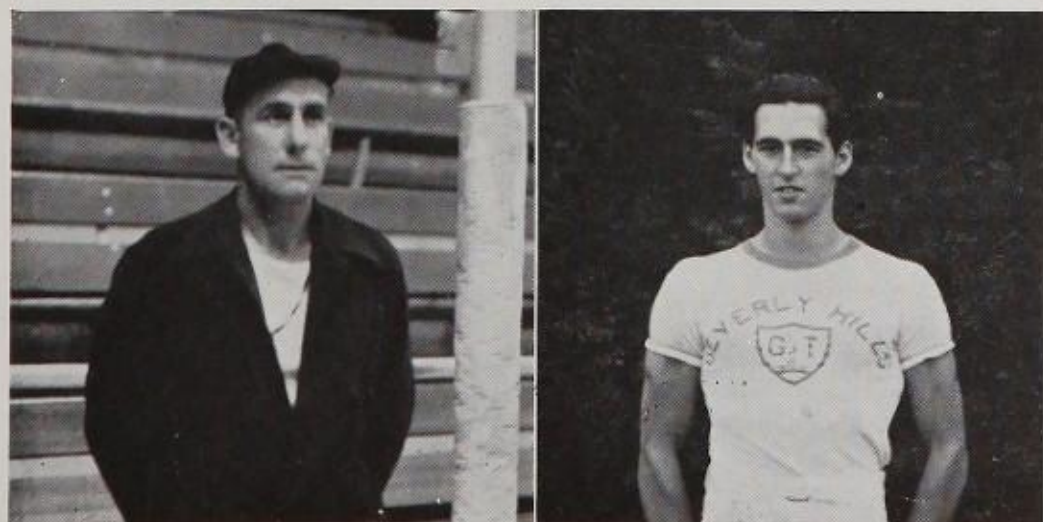

GYM TEAM

This year's gym team, although lacking in experience and number, gave a good account of itself in league competition. The opening match of the season found Long Beach winning by a large margin. A return meet again found the locals on the short end. The gymnasts reached their top form of the year by dumping both Samohi and Inglewood in a three-way meet. Later in the year the All Southern California Champs from Venice took the Normans into camp with ease. The musclemen came through with a second in the Bay League finals, finishing behind Santa Monica. The C.I.F. meet found Beverly closing its season with a third place, trailing Santa Monica and Long Beach Poly.

Top scorers were Captain Tony Harris, Bob Fortier, Keith Morehart, Dwight Sale, and Jim Utterback. Fortier concentrated on the rings, rope climb, and free exercise; Harris on the rings, free exercise, and rope climb; Morehart on the horizontal, side horse, and tumbling; Sale on the side horse; and Utterback on the horizontal, long horse, and tumbling. Other high ranking competitors were Manager Hal Clay, doing work on the Indian Clubs; Jim Perry, engaging in tumbling and the long horse; Dick Rowson, entering on the horizontal, parallels, long horse, and side horse; and Ray Simons, participating in tumbling and free exercise.

GAA BOARD

Fortunate indeed was this year's Girls' Athletic Association to have such fine presidents as Libby Strickland and Barbara Wieman. Molly Moser held down the position of vice-president, while Barbara Snodgrass took the notes of all meetings. Sharing membership on the G.A.A. Board were the following managers: Ann Brookman, publicity; Marilyn Carson, basketball; Elaine McIntosh, bowling; Pat Malcolm, riding; June Merrill, tennis; Dorothy Moncrieff, ice skating;

Ann Monheimer, decorations; Betty Olerich, badminton; and Shirley Schubert, swimming. Miss Karen Burt helpfully acted as sponsor of all activities.

Starting early in the season, the girls made plans and very successfully staged the annual girl-ask-boy Spinsters' Hop. Soon after this venture the patriotic aquacade, presided over by "Miss Liberty," Clarice Kendrick, and "Uncle Sam," Howard Keen, was presented. Highlighting the festival were very amusing stunt dives executed by Dick Wevill. Just before vacation the G.A.A. members enjoyed themselves at a festive Christmas party. Closing the activities of the fall semester was an installation tea for the incoming and outgoing board members. At this tea the board members presented Libby Strickland a token of appreciation—a plaque inscribed, "Nothing short of right is right."

Taking over where Libby had left off, Barbara Wieman put into action some very fine ideas. Barbara started an entirely new but very popular G.A.A. sport—baseball. As was expected there was a large turnout, and the girls really had lots of fun. Success for this sport is due to the management of Mary Stewart and to Mrs. Eleanor Welch and Mrs. Marjorie Sturges who graciously acted as sponsors. Closing the G.A.A. season of sports was a very enjoyable banquet at which the managers for the coming year were announced.

At the end of every semester the faculty in the gym department select the girls who have been most outstanding in G.A.A. sports during their four years at Beverly. Receiving this honor in the fall and having their names inscribed on the annual trophy were Libby Strickland and Margy West; June Merrill, Molly Moser, and Barbara Wieman were distinguished in the spring.

TENNIS TEAM

Winning the fall school tennis tournament, Barbara Snodgrass ranked sixth in the Girls' Division in Southern California and was honored by having her name engraved on the perpetual trophy. Also ranked in Southern California were June Merrill, fifteenth in the Junior Girls' Division, and Alice Armstrong, seventh in the Girls' Division. Success for this year's tennis season is due to these two girls, who were manager and assistant manager respectively, and to Miss Janet Patey, sponsor.

In the spring the netwomen defeated such schools as Marlborough, Redondo, and Westlake. While the Beverlyites were faithfully practicing for the Bay League encounter with Samohi, they met defeat at the hands of their opponents in a practice match. June Merrill and Barbara Snodgrass intermittently played first and second singles while Pat Malcolm held number three spot. In doubles Alice Armstrong and Nancy Hammer were first, Joan Bonwit and Marilyn Carson second, and Ethel Snyder and Joanne Braverman third. Ever faithful as score keepers for the matches were Joan Goldstone, Dorothy Lederer, Louise Lyons, Norma Rydell, and Mariellen Smith.

TENNIS LADDER

Competing in ladder matches was the principal activity of the intermediate tennis group. After a girl's name was placed on the triangular ladder, she could advance by challenging any player on the row above her and by defeating her in a two out of three set match.

New on the calendar for entertainment this year were a picnic and a tennis tournament. Having fun at the picnic, the girls played baseball and went swimming. In the finals of the spring tennis tournament, which was well managed by Alice Armstrong, Janey Mumper defeated Burrell Hayes in a close match. Defeated by a default in the semi-finals because of illness, Betty Courtwright presented stiff competition to every opponent. These girls are practicing hard to be on next year's Bay League Team.

BASKETBALL

Managing the basketball season this year was a very efficient miss named Marilyn Carson. Polly Carabin, witty and dependable, aided in making the season fun for everyone. Acting as sponsors and assisting in the weekly afternoon games were Mrs. Herron and Mrs. Sturges. As a reward for their weekly practice the better players staged an exhibition game in the swim gym. Over two hundred interested fans attended the game.

The enthusiastic freshman players contributed the following names for honorable recognition of their fine work: Dionne Doree, Barbara Kelley, Ellen Ann Potter, and Georgia Webb. Names of senior girls who will go down in basketball history are faithful Molly Moser and Mary Stewart. According to the records, the perfect basketball player would have the following: the teamwork of Molly Moser, the accuracy in long shooting of Joan Dewan, the good sportsmanship of Mary Stewart, the guarding of Polly Carabin, and the excellent forward playing of Marilyn Carson.

ALL STAR TEAM

Being elected to one of the all star basketball teams is the honor sought by each casabateer enthusiast. Receiving this honor and participating on Molly Moser's squad were Joan Dewan, Janet Inglis, Barbara Kibby, Pat Malcolm, Ellen Ann Potter, Sandra Seeley, and Georgia Webb; however, Joanne Bowerman, Polly Carabin, Marilyn Carson, Dionne Doree, Eleanor Knecht, Dianne Lieb, and Bonnie Nate, captained by Jean Medbery, defeated this team in two close matches and were thus able to play the faculty team. After making a grand entrance in their gay nineties' costumes, the faculty, consisting of such outstanding stars as "Butch" Bolin, "Bashful" Burt, "Clever" Caravacci, "Happy" Herron, "Puzzling" Patey, "Sizzling" Schwerin, and "Snappy" Sturges, proved their ability by trouncing the favored all-stars in the last game of the season.

RIDING

Working hand in hand to make this year's riding season the best yet were Pat Malcolm, manager; Alene Wilson, assistant manager; and Miss Janet Patey, sponsor. This year, due to the gas situation, some of the activities, such as the annual interscholastic horse shows, had to be abolished. However, the girls did meet frequently on Thursday afternoons at Leo Dupee Stables. Not only did the girls improve their skill through experience on the trails, but they practiced faithfully on a drill team fashioned after the American Saddlers' Girls Troop. These thirty active members in the club also enjoyed themselves at a breakfast ride.

Not to be outdone by other clubs that were doing war work, the riding group did its bit by making afghan squares and scrap books.

BOWLING

Piling fifteen in a taxi every Thursday afternoon, the Normanette bowlers rode in style to the local bowling alley. At the beginning of the year the players were grouped together in teams, which had such names as "Wahines," "Commandos," "P-38's," "Hi Shootin' Gals," "Wots Whats," and "Long Shots." As a result of the weekly two-game competition, latest reports have it that the three top ranking teams are the following: "Commandos," "P-38's," and "Wahines."

Elaine McIntosh, who is first on the ladder as well as being president of the club, with the help of Mrs. Mary Heron, sponsor, successfully managed the activities of G. A. A. bowling. Officers in the club include Molly Moser, vice-president; Jayne Ellen McGinnis, secretary-treasurer; and Pat Wolfe, assistant manager.

SPONSORS

"Toby", as jolly and amiable Miss Ethel Tobin is called, not only sponsors the badminton club, but acts as mainstay to the defense organization called the Girls' Emergency Corps.

Newest edition to the gym department is petite Mrs. Marjorie Sturges. Well known for her sweetness and kindly disposition, Mrs. Sturges, who hails from Beverly Vista Grammar School, devotes her spare time to encouraging and instructing normanette basketball enthusiasts.

Acting as new head of the gym department is Miss Janet Patey. Recognized for her sincerity and efficiency, Miss Patey is sponsor not only of the championship tennis team but of the riding and swimming clubs as well.

Known for her vitality and enthusiasm, Mrs. Mary Herron diverts her energy into teaching the Beverly femmes the secret of knocking down all twelve pins in the bowling alley.

Quiet and dependable, Miss Karen Burt has proved again and again her outstanding dancing ability through her inspirational modern dance assemblies.

BADMINTON

Switching the job of manager from Betty Dickerson to Dottie Didricksen and finally to Betty Olerich was the fate of this year's G.A.A. Badminton club. After managing the fall season, Betty Dickerson left school. Just before the spring season started, Dottie Didricksen, successor to Betty, also left. Betty Olerich then became girls' manager, while Phil Jacks served as manager for the boys.

To start the season the Beverly shuttlecock smashers drew for positions on the ladder. In turn, the chief activity of the club was playing matches to cop the coveted high positions. Faithful members include the following: Jane Boyle, Gerry Curley, Patty Davis, Leantine Flan, Barbara Gilroy, Billie Gold, Natalye Rohe, Rose Mary Ryan, and Nancy Spence. Participating actively in the boys' division were Roy Friedman, Richard Kelton, and Sherman Wagenseller.

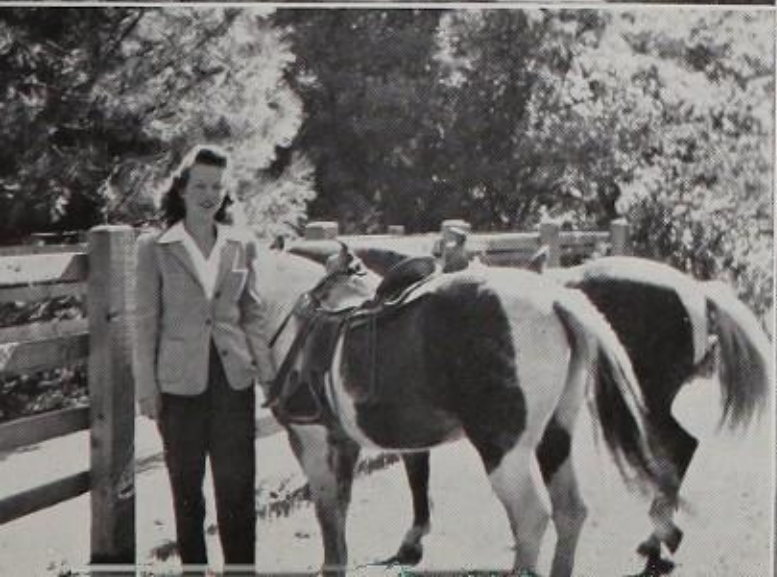

SWIMMING

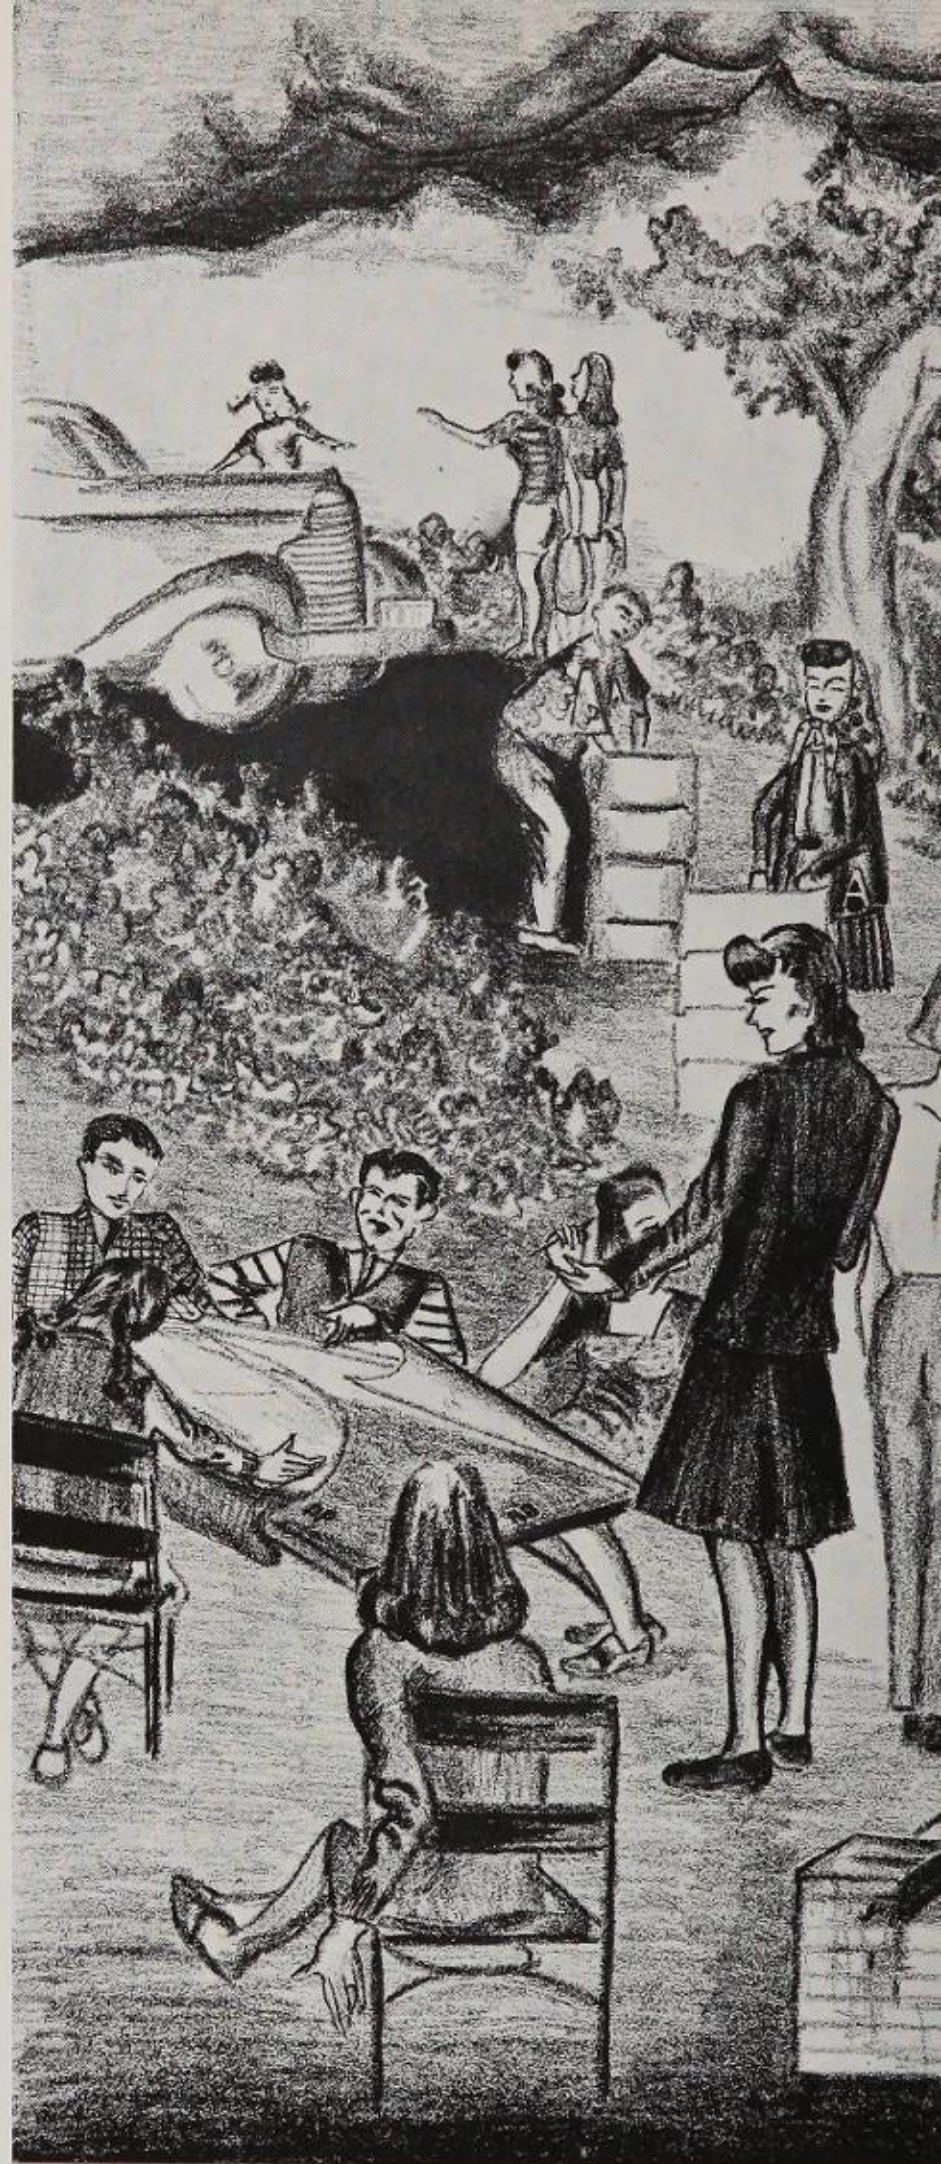

Under the competent management of Barbara Wieman the G.A.A. swimming club this season devoted time and energy to the production of one of the best aquacades Beverly has yet witnessed. The girls, well supervised by Miss Janet Patey, the swimming sponsor, Mrs. Marjorie Sturges, and Miss Norene Forbes, faithfully practiced three days a week during the seven weeks preceding the performance which was given on November 18. With patriotism as its theme, the aquacade was well presided over by "Uncle

"Sam" and "Miss Liberty", represented by Howard Keen and Clarice Kendrick. Marcia Hope, Joyce Kellar, and Georgine Ritter successfully filled the positions of attendants to "Miss Liberty." Highlighting and concluding a very fine program, all the participants stood in the water, saluting the flag and singing our national anthem.

Part of the proceeds from this event went toward the building of a new trophy case, in which the girls' awards will be kept.

WATCHTOWER

The Watchtower of 1943 carries out the patriotic theme of Beverly Hills High School at war. This theme will remind Beverly Hills Alumni of historic 1943 during which the student body proved its patriotism by successful bond and scrap drives.

The English staff has cooperated with the art staff in presenting the year book. The former has been responsible for all literary work found in the Watchtower. Members of the English staff were chosen by the sponsor, Miss Ruth Wheeler. Each person is responsible for the stories in a certain portion of the book.

Everyone on the staff realizes that he received his position on the basis of scholarship and dependability. All, therefore, have cooperated and worked to the best of their ability to make the best possible Watchtower.

Ruth Krick, editor of the Watchtower, was assisted by Evelyn Evans and Burton Wilner. Miss Wheeler, who deserves credit for the organization of the annual, says, "It has been a pleasure to work with this year's Watchtower staff, each member of which has been thoroughly responsible, cooperative, and courteous."

This year's theme has been a difficult one to illustrate, but the Watchtower art staff has done very well. The staff has been responsible for all division sheets, lettering, layouts, and drawings which are found within these covers. The division sheets show Normans being educated to fill war positions.

Cartoonist Charles Jones, who is now in the army, mailed many sketches of army life to the staff.

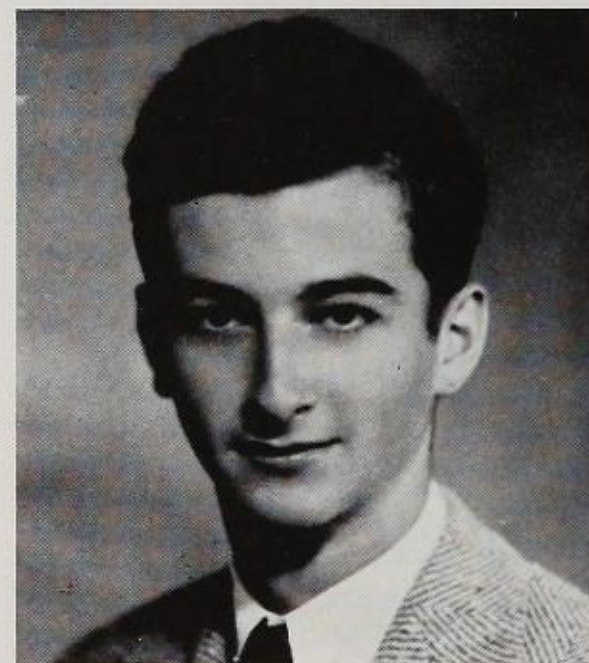

Seventeen students were chosen for their artistic superiority to be members of the art staff, and they have worked on different phases of the book. This year the staff has had co-editors for the first time; both Ruth Connell and Dick Evans have been under the supervision of Mrs. Caroline Bennett.

HIGH

STEVE HERZBRUN

The Highlights, which every Norman looks forward to from week to week, was edited efficiently by Stephen Herzbrun the first semester. The editor-in-chief headed the second page. City editor in charge of the first page was Carol Tannenbaum. Carol worked endlessly in presenting the best possible first page news.

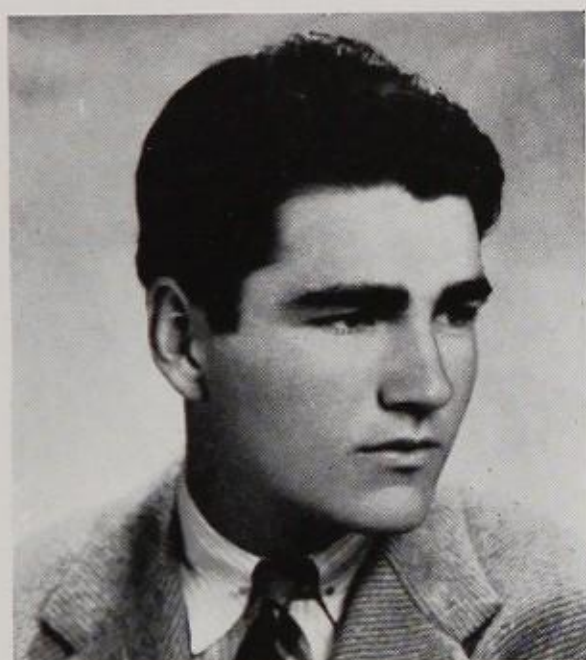

Norman Nomad, written by Janet Bone, furnished the student body with the latest gossip each week. Janet produced the dirt very adequately, and all were satisfied. Barbara Slate was in charge of the third page, which all subscribers turn to for the latest club news. Barbara, like all members of the staff, did an excellent job of editing.

Sports editor Rudi Fischer pacified enthusiastic rooters each week with his descriptions of the latest encounters. He wrote up the games in an interesting and realistic fashion.

The compulsory advertising for the Highlights was brought in by Rube Wolf during the semester. Rube constantly reminded Normans of the importance of patronizing the stores advertised in our paper so that merchants would continue to approve of their advertisements. Dorothy Jacoby had the difficult job of circulation to contend with.

Other members of the Highlights staff who deserve credit are Arline Horwitz, Roger Corman, and Ted Pelton, who acted as correspondents to outside papers. Mrs. Romaine Pauley, sponsor of the Highlights staff, displayed her journalistic skill throughout the semester.

LIGHTS

MALCOLM FLORENCE

The second semester Highlights staff continued to produce the popular edition of school news every Friday. The members of the staff were guided successfully by Mrs. Romaine Pauley and Malcolm Florence, editor-in-chief. Ted Pelton was managing editor, while Janet Bone and Roger Corman were the co-city editors in charge of the first page.

The second page was edited by the editor-in-chief. In addition to the fine editorials appearing on the second page, Carol Tannenbaum's Norman Nomad afforded most Normans their primary interest. Acting as feature editor, Barbara Slate wrote numerous sidelights on school activities, which needed helpful propaganda at certain times.

Ann Stanley provided club news most adequately by editing the third page. Co-sports editors Bud Rosenberg and Howard Winton also are to be congratulated for their contributions to the paper. Arline Horwitz and Bud Rosenberg served as the Beverly Hills Citizen correspondents, while Ann Stern reported the service news.

Betty Glaser provided the necessary advertisements during the semester. Bettie Olerich was the business manager, and Betty Jamison was in charge of circulation.

In addition to its weekly publication, the Highlights staff made patriotic efforts this past semester by launching the Thrift and Conservation drive with "Scotties" serving as mascots. The paper also inaugurated the service flag and started the correspondence with ex-Normans who are now in the service.

"HIS FIRST DATE"

On January 15 the Little Theater presented "His First Date" at an assembly which gave enjoyment to the entire student body.

The plot dealt with the family of a prosperous banker, but the typical problems of the high school son provided the greatest interest. The boy, Henry Tippet, somehow managed to obtain a date with the famous movie star, Lorraine Lotus, who was making a personal appearance tour. Little did Henry realize that his father had once been very intimate with Miss Lotus. Both the attitude of Mrs. Tippet on seeing the touching reunion of her husband with L.L. and the general outcome of the plot were quite delightful.

The play was under the direction of Beverly's drama director, Miss Evelyn Jean Greathouse, who worked very hard and successfully with the cast. Matilda, the deaf-when-she-wanted-to-be maid, was played by Marie-Claire Martin; Mrs. Caroline Tippet, the understanding but wise mother, had LaVerne Weiss as her portrayer; and the interfering little sister, Evelyn Tippet, was played by Ellen Jones. Others in the cast were Henry Tippet, the problem child, played by Tommy Hoffman; Mr. Frederick B. Tippet, the embarrassed father, portrayed by Bob Lucas; and Lorraine Lotus, the glamorous and conceited movie star, played by Laurel Hill.

"STAGE DOOR"

"Stage Door", the Little Theater's second production of the year, was given in room 300 on the afternoons of January 25 and 26.

The play takes place in the interesting Footlights Club, an actresses' boarding house in New York City. The plot is centered around Terry Randall, a young actress who loves her work and the atmosphere of the theater. Terry is in love with Keith Burgess, who desires fame and fortune in return for his writing. The two disagree constantly on this point, so they finally break up. Terry refuses to accompany Jean Maitland and, later, Keith to Hollywood due to her love of the theater. Many young actresses and their problems are involved in this play, and the results are very satisfying.

The production was under the direction of Miss Evelyn Jean Greathouse. The part of Terry Randall starred both Barbara Lynde and Marilyn Knowlden; Mary Stewart played Jean Maitland; Blossom Weinberg portrayed Kaye Hamilton; and Olga was enacted by Nancy Hervey. The other characters included Claire Koren as Bernice, both Billie Winn and Betty Petterson as Madeline, Virginia Clary as Mrs. Orcutt, and Pat Gilmore as Mattie. The only two male parts were very well done by David Lukather as David Kingsley and Denton Porter as Keith Burgess.

RADIO SPEECH

The Radio Speech class under the direction of Miss Harriet Louise Touton continued to produce its weekly Saturday shows over station KMPC. Some of the very entertaining plays produced during the year were as follows: "Marbury" by Barbara Slate, "When You Think of Me," "Our Sweetest Songs," "Come Spring Again" by Janet Bone, and "Technician's Nightmare" by Neal Hospers. Other plays presented were "Nor All Your Tears" by Marcia Marcus, "Cross My Palm With Silver" by Kimla Lloyd, "Alicia" and "High Towers" by Lola Siegel, "Le Pont de Grace" by Mary Frances Touton, and "Black Treasure" by Leonora Herendeen.

All of the plays presented by the Radio Speech class are written, acted, and produced by its members. Each student has an equal opportunity to participate in this activity, and much valuable experience may be gained from it. The radio players present two assemblies throughout the year which are identical in every respect, except for the actual broadcasting, to radio broadcasts.

Outstanding actors, producers, or writers are awarded for their individual talent at the annual "Academy Awards Dinner." At this time an oscar is presented for the best male lead, female lead, male supporting role, female supporting role, script, and production of the entire year.

"MACBETH"

In order to commemorate the birthday of Shakespeare and to acquaint Normans with some of his work, the annual Shakespearean Festival was held on April 16 in the auditorium. The most important scenes from Macbeth comprised the program, since it was deemed better to dwell on one play instead of presenting parts of a number of different ones. The program was presented each period to all upper grade English classes, thus taking the place of the usual class work.

The cast in the order of its appearance was as follows: Bob Fagan as the narrator, Irene Long, Marie-Claire Martin, and Nanette Notarius playing the three witches, Bob Fagan in the character of Banquo, Jerry Paris as the mighty Macbeth, and Barbara Lynde and Marilyn Knowlden alternating as the unscrupulous Lady Macbeth.

Other characters were a messenger played by Dick Roodburg, Lennox played by Howard Green, Ross enacted by Alex Forgette, and some lords and ladies played by Braven Dyer, Tommy Hoffman, Helen Carnahan, Leonard Herendeen, Ellen Jones, and Judy Silverman.

Macbeth's cast was completed with Dick Wheeler playing the murderer, Richard Mullen and Dick Roodburg acting as servants, Charles Gross and Anne Corby in the roles of the doctor and the gentlewoman, respectively, and Rolf Norman as Seyton. Miss Evelyn Jean Greathouse directed the production.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Outstanding among Beverly's many traditions, the annual Christmas Concert was presented this year for the third consecutive season. The entire student body witnessed the program in an assembly on December 17; the following Sunday, December 19, parents and the rest of the community were invited to attend a repeat performance.

The A Capella choir, under the direction of Mr. Glen Case, offered numerous religious and traditional works. A choir composed of members of the Girls' Beginning Glee, under the student direction of Beverly Snyder, presented several musical selections. An added musical effect was realized in the off-stage echo quartet, the members of which were Patti Steele, soprano; Beverly Sheet, alto; Richard Scott, tenor; and Ray Palange, bass.

The pageant of visualizations, telling the story of the nativity, was staged by Mrs. Margaret Bish, while the settings were designed and executed by Mr. William Daywalt's stage crew. Those taking part in the scenes were Leroy Carver, Howard Keen, Bob Jones, Bob Sherman, Lincoln Sheranian, Ruth Connell, Maxine Fife, Sheila McMillan, Peggy O'Neil, Dick Evans, Marcia Hope, Don Allen, Hal Clay, Isabel Salzgeber, and Sheldon Schoneberg, with Jack Boher supplementing the tableau by reading from the Scriptures.

The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Benjamin Lasky, provided an accompaniment to the program. Other members of the production committee were Mr. Wendell Black, Miss Pauline Everett, Mrs. Leah K. Moore, Miss Evelyn Greathouse, and Miss Harriet Louise Touton.

TALENT ASSEMBLY

The annual student talent assembly was held on Thursday, April 29, at the regular assembly time. Students talented in certain fields entertained Normans for an hour with acts which proved to be very enjoyable.

Students desiring to participate in this program presented their numbers at an audition which was judged by a combined student and faculty committee. The judging was difficult due to the many talented contestants, but eight numbers were finally chosen to comprise the program.

Ellis Wainstein displayed his talent with a piano medley of popular tunes. Jean Block, Steve Phillips, and Dick Rowson entertained with a flute trio which was the basis for a strictly comedy act. Carl Gebhart played his trumpet to everybody's enjoyment, while Shirley Anderson once more fulfilled everyone's highest expectations as soprano soloist by singing "I'll See You Again." Bob Breen and Heidi Elfenbein were two more talented pianists participating in the assembly.

Jean Ruth, by skillfully executing a tap dance to a very intricate tune, added greatly to the success of the program. The cast was concluded by Dick Wheeler and Steve Phillips, who humorously presented the history of music from its primitive beginnings. They did this by means of a narrative and illustrated the lecture in usual corny style on two sweet potatoes.

The entire production was under the supervision of Mr. Glen Case, Miss Evelyn Greathouse, and Miss Alida Parker.

FORENSICS

Again this year the forensic squad displayed its outstanding skill and spirit at the various tournaments which it attended. Beverly's speakers were greatly handicapped by gas rationing, and it was difficult for them to attend the meets; however, a smaller schedule made it possible for them to be transported to the majority of the tournaments.

Bob Breen and Melvin Levine placed first in oratorical declamation and humorous declamation, respectively, at the U.S.C. tournament held in December. Dow Carpenter placed first in original oratory at Alhambra High School in March, and Bob Breen and Zora Allwine placed second and third, respectively, in dramatic declamation at this same tournament. Dick Wheeler was outstanding in humorous declamation and debate during the entire year, while Carl Gebhart displayed his skill in extemporaneous speaking and debate. Wesley Shyer received honors in oratorical declamation, and Enid Harrow also placed in dramatic declamation. Both the A and B debate teams deserve much credit as does every member of the squad.

Various students qualified for the nationals which have been cancelled due to the war, but everyone pledged to attend the Redlands tournament in May. Prexy Carl Gebhart was assisted by vice-president Dick Wheeler and secretary-treasurer Jeanne Jamison during the year. The entire squad was coached by Mr. Charles Wright.

FORENSICS

This year the Forensic team was highlighted by certain members who brought many victories to their school. The first of these champions is Bob Breen who received a first place in Oratorical Declamation at the U.S.C. tournament. He also was awarded first place in this same division for the State tournament which was held here at Beverly in May. Still others of Bob's awards were second place for the State in Dramatic Declaration and second place in the Iron Man award.

Honors for Humorous Declamation were brought to Normandy by Melvin Levine who obtained a first place for Southern California and third place for the entire State.

Dick Wheeler brought fame to his school when he earned the coveted Iron Man trophy. This trophy is awarded to the student who, after participating in all divisions of the annual State tournament, has the highest total score.

First place at the Alhambra tournament for Original Oratory went to Dow Carpenter, who also received third place for extemporaneous speaking at this same meet.

The entire Forensic team, under the guidance of Mr. Charles F. Wright, deserves much credit for receiving the all around first division at the California State Speech and Poetry Festival.

STAGE CREW

This year the stage crew started with a small and inexperienced group, but it is now a large and capable force working for the good of the school. During the year the crew has designed and produced sets for Color Day, "His First Date", Armistice Day, the Christmas program, Baccalaureate, and Commencement, as well as a great many other school events.

Mal Klein acted as stage manager this year, while Fred Hessell and Dick O'Leary took charge of construction. Electrician Sam Adams was assisted by Frank Rantz; and Grant Corby, the projectionist, had Spencer Nelson as his assistant. Other head men on the crew were Don Bailey, property man; Don Allen, scene striker; and Howard De Jong, fly man.

Audrey Baer, Sally Frank, Evelyn Haver, and Dorothy DeWolf were the designers for the crew which consisted of Joan Barry, Jack Oakey, Barbara Raymond, Don Hayden, Bob Olds, Bruce McDowell, Dick Abarta, Ben Kahane, Phil Harri-gan, and Stanley Tanner.

The crew is especially proud of a letter from the Treasury Department of the United States which congratulates the group for its part in the Armistice Day Assembly. Mr. William Daywalt, sponsor, says, "I really think the school can be as proud of the stage crew as the crew is proud of its school."

VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE

This year's annual Vocational Conference, which was held during the week of April 5 to 9, was most successful in guiding Normans toward their intended vocations. This year's conference was different from that of previous years; thus an assembly was held on Monday at which Mr. Geoffrey Morgan spoke on choosing and succeeding in one's life work.

The meetings this year were divided into six divisions, and each student chose one of them to attend. The freshmen and sophomores had their meetings on Wednesday while the juniors and seniors attended theirs on Thursday. Men and women who had achieved success in their fields of work advised students on the vocational possibilities of their occupations. The speeches were followed by a question period during which time many students voiced problems which were still troubling them.

The planning of the conference was undertaken by a faculty committee, assisted by members of the Commercial Club, who deserve much credit for their work.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

An ultimate goal in the career of every singer at Beverly is membership in the A Capella choir. Previous experience in group singing, as well as the approval of Mr. Glen Case, restricts the organization to the more talented vocalists of Beverly. Meeting as a class, the group practices both sacred and secular music and rehearses for its performances.

Singing the principal portion of the Christmas Concert, the choir surpassed any previous Yuletide performance in beauty and magnitude. The impressive and stirring procession of the robed choir members, each carrying a lighted candle and singing as they walked from the rear of the auditorium to the stage, gave an illusion of heavenly participation in the spirit of the season.

In the latter part of the second semester the members of the A Capella choir combined their musical talents with those of the students in the other departments of music in presenting the outstanding Spring Concert.

The time and effort spent in practice by the members of the A Capella choir do not go unrewarded, however, for an understanding of choral music and experience in group singing and team work, as well as an opportunity to sing for enjoyment, is gained.

Officers of the organization for the two semesters were Barbara Wieman and Don Willardson, presidents; Dave Gill and Madge Edwards, vice-presidents; Clarice Kendrick and Dave Gill, secretaries; Bill Chamberlain and Barbara Snodgrass, assistant secretaries; Burt Rogers, librarian for both semesters; Barton Merrill and Art Lieberman, assistant librarians; Don Hulburt and Ramon Palange, property managers; Virginia Swisher as assistant property manager for the first semester and Bill Rogers and Marilyn Buckley as co-assistant property managers; Joan Winchell and Barbara Kibby, publicity managers; Ruth Krick, assistant publicity manager for the first semester (the office was dispensed with for the second semester); and Ramon Palange, who was the student director for both semesters.

The members of the A Capella choir and their instructor, Mr. Glen Case, are to be commended for their faithful service to the school.

GIRLS' GLEE

BOYS' GLEE

Lending their combined voices to the Christmas and Spring concerts, the girls' glee closed a successful and active season. Directed by Mr. Glen M. Case, the girls began the year in the beginning glee and were graduated at the start of the second semester into the girls' advanced glee. Advancement into the A Capella choir is the goal of every girl in the organization.

Officers for the two semesters were Charlotte De Malzeville and Joyce Borgeson, presidents; Floie Shakley and Marie Baldwin, vice-presidents; Joyce Borgeson and Jackie Hamlin, secretaries; Pat Huey and Charlotte De Malzeville, assistant secretaries; Patsy Miller and Pat Huey, librarians; Janet Cooper and Floie Shakley, assistant librarians; Charlotte Emmerling and Janet Cooper, publicity managers; and Jackie Hamlin and Barbara King, property managers.

Singing for pure enjoyment and preparing for entrance into the A Capella choir are the purposes of the boys' glee. As a first recital of their talents, the boys sang several selections in the Spring Concert under the direction of Mr. Glen M. Case. An appreciation of choral music is rewarded these boys by their work.

The officers for the two semesters were respectively Don McKinnon and Fred Lee, presidents; Pat Dunne and David Kaplan, secretaries; Burton Low and Jay Green, assistant secretaries; John Chipman and George Sherman, librarians; Fred Lee and Joe McCarthy, assistant librarians; George Clausen and Jerome Taft, property managers; and Charles Weisstein and Marshal Gordon, publicity managers.

Mrs. Marjorie Parke accompanies the group in rehearsals and performances.

ORCHESTRA

Displaying fine showmanship and true musical ability, despite the change of conductor at the beginning of the year, the orchestra played at both the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The organization lost its former conductor, Mr. George Wright, to the armed services but gained the excellent leadership of Mr. Benjamin Lasky. Beverly should be proud of this musical body.

Richard Rowson and Joe Feldman, respectively, were the managers of the orchestra for the two semesters; Jimmy Higson and Richard Estep, assistant managers; Janet Stevenson, librarian for both semesters; Laurel Ewing, assistant librarian for the first semester; and Janis Baker and Bonnie Jean Wiemer, co-assistant librarians for the second semester.

AND

Being ever faithful is the distinction of Beverly's band; rain or shine, it could be seen marching down the football field or rallying school spirit at the basketball games. In its serious work the band played at numerous school assemblies and performed in the Spring Concert.

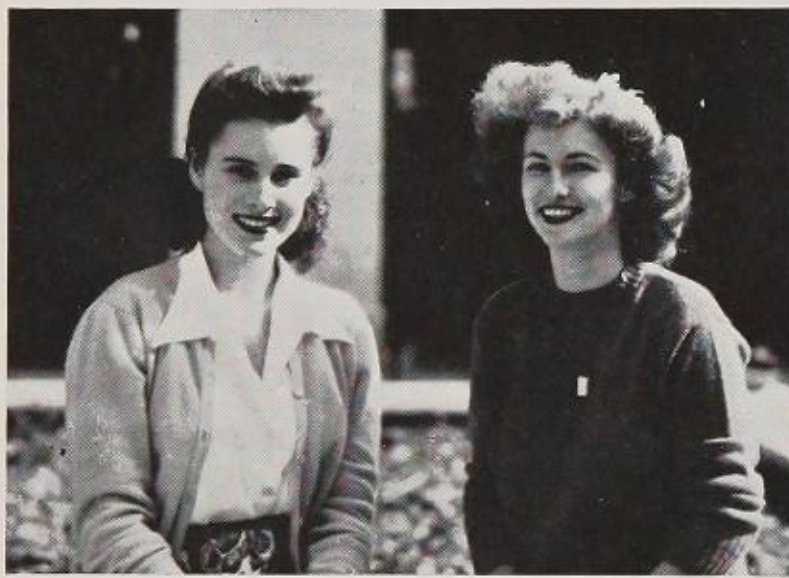

BAND

The officers of the band for the two semesters were Carl Gebhart and Carl Hoefener, managers; Carl Hoefener and Merrill Johns, assistant managers; Helen Osgood, librarian for the first semester, and Priscilla Peniston and Marilyn Carson, co-librarians for the following semester; and Marilyn Carson, assistant librarian for the first semester. The office of assistant librarian was abolished for the second semester.

To become a member of the Alpha organization is the ambition of almost every girl in Beverly High. This honor is given to girls who are outstanding in scholarship, leadership, and service and who are recommended by three teachers and voted upon by the organization.

The main event of the fall semester was the presentation of the Alpha Dance which was held in December. This year it was at the Palm Room of the Beverly Hills Hotel. To carry out the theme of a "White Christmas" a white tree decorated with glistening silver balls was placed next to the bandstand.

Throughout the year the Alphas contributed many hours of work to the Red Cross by piecing quilts and making scrapbooks for service men in hospitals.

In May the organization, co-sponsored by Mrs. Leeah K. Moore and Mrs. Mary Herron, held its annual Alpha Tea for the girls of Beverly and their mothers. The affair included among other things a fashion show presented by the girls.

At the end of each semester the Alpha citizenship cup is awarded to the outstanding Senior A member who has contributed the most to the organization.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Clorice Curtice and Sally Carewe; vice-presidents, Ruth Krick and Janet Bone; secretary, Phyllis Brickerstaff; treasurer, Suzanne Ayres.

KNIGHTS

The Knights, representing the highest achievement a boy can attain at Beverly, closed another eventful and successful year. The club was under the direction of Dr. Lowell Frost, sponsor from its beginnings, and Mr. Jack Schwartz and Mr. James Lee, assistant sponsors. Activities were still numerous despite many war restrictions. "The Best Dance of the Year" was held at the Cheviot Hills Country Club on March 19. Virginia Rossi's orchestra provided the musical numbers. Malcolm Florence, together with several committees, succeeded in waging an exceedingly enjoyable affair. A revolutionary development was engineered by the Knights in the form of a Campus Clean-Up drive. It was the duty of the Knights, assigned to different posts, to see that no papers were needlessly dropped. Its full importance can be measured in the appearance of the campus and the man hours of work saved.

Elections of new members are held twice each semester. Any eleventh or twelfth grade boy is eligible. Being a service organization, many extra-curricular activities are performed by the members, the most important being the raising of the flag each morning and ushering at various school programs. Two awards, the Knight's Cup and the Knight Paramount, are made at the end of each semester.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Bob Iverson, John Roesch, and Malcolm Florence; secretary-treasurers, John Roesch, Jack Schultz, and Pat Davis.

PALLADIANS

The Palladian Society, recognized as Beverly's highest scholastic group, grew to 170 members during the past year. The organization was sponsored by Mrs. Louise Dunn. Through the capable leadership of Dick Rowson and Jean Block many activities were staged.

INTERNATIONAL STATESMEN

With more interest prevailing than ever before the International Statesmen swelled in membership until it became the second largest club in the school. Much credit must be given to Bob Breen, who presided for both semesters. It was through his leadership, together with the help of his officers, that the group became an active, moving organization. Every month a meeting was planned. During these meetings many problems were discussed. At some of the discussions speakers presided, while at others motion pictures were shown. The Americanism assembly, which featured the best essays written on a previously announced subject, was sponsored by the International Statesmen. The group also sponsored a noon dance, the proceeds of which went toward buying a fifty dollar war bond for the school. In line with the war needs the Statesmen took up the problem of supplying the armed forces with scrap books.

OFFICERS: President, Bob Breen; vice-presidents, Betty Young and Henry Moffat; secretaries, Ruth Krick and Mary Stewart; treasurers, Frank Wolf and Barbara Wieman.

BIBLIONS

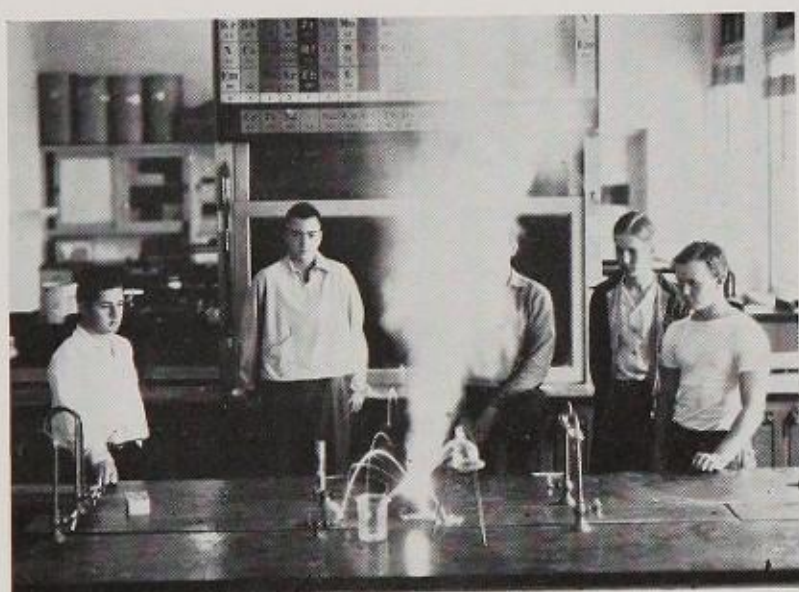

The Biblions, sponsored by Miss Hazel S. Vaughan, is another of the Norman service organizations. Membership is limited to forty members, twenty Library Staff and twenty Library Council. The Library Council is the advisory section of the Biblions chosen from members who have earned their Library Staff pins.

Most important of the monthly meetings was that held at Virginia Clary's home where William W. Clary spoke on his hobby of book collecting. In national defense work the group placed fourth in the bond selling competition, each member having taken an active part. With the money gained from the numerous activities four war bonds were purchased. In the Norman book drive for the Marines Dorothy Fitger and Dave Heyler earned enough money to buy four boxes of books to send to the Red Cross in the name of the student body. In March the club sponsored the Victory Book Drive in which a thousand books were obtained from the Normans. The organization also has engaged in making Christmas cards and in collecting playing cards, lamps, and coat hangers for the Red Cross.

Sally Hatteroth, Dave Heyler, and Giles Mead gained the distinction of being elected to the Council to fill the places left by Mary Lou Condon, Mayfield Harris, and Jack Schultz.

OFFICERS: President, Tike Tinsman; vice-president, John Malloy; secretary, Betty Jo Fitger; treasurer, Jack Bullard.

ALCHEMISTS

Chosen by former members of the Alchemist society upon the recommendation of a chemistry teacher, this year's scientific geniuses have truly displayed their talents and training by service both to Beverly and to the grammar schools in this district. In traveling to these elementary schools the boys successfully demonstrated numerous interesting and instructive experiments, creating an interest in the scientific aspects of life and nature. Supplementing the class work of Beverly's chemistry students, the Alchemists presented experiments which conveyed a better understanding of the application of chemistry to the practical and industrial sciences.

The members of the club, however, do not labor unrewarded, for from their generous service they gain valuable experience and knowledge, unobtainable except from actual work in the laboratory. The Alchemists carry on much experimental work for themselves in the laboratory, observing new reactions and sharing the results among themselves. At their meetings the members discuss new achievements in chemistry and physics to keep up to date with the persistent progress of science.

Replacing the club's founder, Mr. Wright E. Owen, as sponsor, Miss Erna M. Schwerin has faithfully carried out "Uncle Weo's" work and guided the club through an active and successful year.

To become a member of the Alchemist society is the goal of every chemist at Beverly, and with much reason, for this club has much to offer every science-minded student.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Henry Bruck and Phil Gelpi; secretary-treasurers, Dick Schuster and Bert Downs.

NORMAN LETTERMEN

Recognized as the top athletic organization at Beverly, the Norman Lettermen club finished its second year of activity. The club was organized last year under the direction of Coach Bob Chambers. After Coach Chambers' entrance into the Navy, Harold C. Bacon took over the sponsorship. During this short period membership in this organization has become one of the highest honors obtainable at Beverly, an achievement looked forward to by all athletes. The club is open to any fellow who has made an "A" or "B" letter, has a "C" average, and has been recommended by the athletic department.

The main activity of the year was a sport dance held at the Beverly Hills Women's Club on November 13. Music was provided by Don Hodges and his orchestra. A pie-eating contest helped liven up the activities. The club also engaged in various other activities, the most important being the investigation of students wearing illegal letters and stripes. This task was aided by the Boys' League Cabinet. Many of the athletic engagements were ushered and guarded by the Norman Lettermen, and much help was given by the organization to the successful functioning of the aquacade.

All members can be recognized by the orange and white pins and the shields worn on the Lettermen sweaters.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Howard Keen and John Moffat; vice-presidents, Malcolm Florence and Dewey Tackaberry; secretary-treasurers, Don McKenzie and Dick O'Leary.

LEKTOS

The Lektos organization, sponsored by Miss Frances Hurd, is composed of students outstanding in the work of one particular department. One out of every two hundred students may be selected by the faculty for membership in this honor club.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Paul Goldberg, and Marilyn Knowlden; vice-presidents, Libby Strickland and Marco Montemezzi; secretaries, June Merrill and Pat Holmes; historians, Neal Hospers and Ruth Krick.

The Quill and Scroll represents students who have done exceptional work in journalism. The society is international in scope and is restricted to editorial staff members. Requirements for membership are nomination by Mrs. Romaine Pauley and election by a national board. At Beverly the results of new elections are usually announced during the Press Club banquet. The organization is purely honorary, engaging in no outside activities since its members belong to the Press Club.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

SENIOR TRI-Y

The Tri-Y organization is a branch of the Girl Reserves. Its purpose is to promote not only friendship but a higher standard of citizenship among girls in high school.

OFFICERS: President, Lusia Walker; vice-presidents, Betty Conlan and Gloria Thatcher; secretaries, Ann Stanley and Ruth Connell; treasurers, Gloria Thatcher and Nancy Norton.

Besides helping with the Christmas party, the Junior Tri-Y, sponsored by Mrs. Cora Stephenson, has been doing Red Cross work throughout the year and has presented to the school a blanket to be used in case of emergency.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Burrell Hayes and Adrienne Kosches; vice presidents, Peggy Noble and Barbara Kibby; secretaries, Reona Kavich and Betty Jo Fitger; treasurers, Janis Baker and Jean Roesch.

The Sophomore Tri-Y and its sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Herbst, have devoted most of their club activities to the Red Cross by making scrap books and mounting cross word puzzles to help occupy service men convalescing in hospitals.

OFFICERS: President, Gerry Olerich; vice-presidents, Patsy Paullin and Peggy MacLean; secretaries, Sally Duffy and Joyce Borgeson; treasurers, Dianne Flagg and Alice Armstrong.

The activities of the Prep Tri-Y, sponsored by Miss Mary Barton, have been those of filling stockings at Christmastime for the Children's Hospital and doing Red Cross work.

The purpose of the Tri-Y is to aid in the development of girls' physical, mental, and spiritual character. Their pin and emblem is a triangle within a circle.

OFFICERS: President, Eleanor Knecht; vice-president, Barbara Kelly; secretary, Betty Springmeyer.

The Home Economics club, sponsored by Mrs. Corinne Pyle and Miss Authene Norton, is composed of girls interested in the cooking, sewing, and weaving classes.

This year the organization has devoted most of its time to Red Cross work. One of its biggest jobs was to help provide a recreation center for boys at Kodiak, Alaska.

MANAGERS

The Managers' Club, sponsored by Mr. Charles Brown, is a small but nevertheless active group. Members are selected from the various managers of the varsity, bee, cee, and midget teams. The club had many activities this year, foremost of which was the effort to obtain a water wagon for the football team. The group also helped with many sports activities.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Hal Tamblin and Jim Shotwell; vice-president, Jim Shotwell; secretary, Jim Le Bel.

MEMBERS: Sanford Corzine, Rudy Fischer, Herbert Furth, Guy Hayes, Otis Healy, Phil Jacks, Jim Le Bel, John Moffat, Arnold Seidel, Jim Shotwell, John Struchen, Hal Tamblin, Bill Wiard.

The Girls' Emergency Corps, established soon after the attack on Pearl Harbor, is composed of girls at Beverly who are eager to serve in a possible emergency. Four groups were organized under the auspices of the girls' gym department. These groups include rescue, bomb shelter, morale, and first aid stations.

During air raid drills the girls go to their assigned stations, which are scattered in strategic places throughout the building, to await instructions from their superiors.

GIRLS' EMERGENCY

SQUIRES

The Squires, consisting of ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade boys, again upheld its position as the top honorary group of the lower divisions. The organization, known for both its scholarship and service, continued in its traditional manner of capability and cooperation. Dances were held during both semesters, one exclusively for Squires and the other for the student body. The school dance was the first ever presented by the Squires, and much credit for the success of the event must be given to Prexy Bill Van Fleet. In addition an assembly was sponsored by the group, during which a speaker presided. The guest, Mr. George Rony, spoke on the hardships endured by the Russians. For school service the Squires ushered at many school events, most important of which were Baccalaureate and Graduation. Banquets were held at the end of each semester. At these banquets were announced the new members and the new officers for the next term. Each night the Squires performed their customary duty of lowering "Old Glory" to the sounds of the bugle. Mr. Black, amiable and well-liked faculty member, acted as sponsor of the group.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Bruce Dubrow and Bill Van Fleet; vice-presidents, Burt Rogers and Dow Carpenter; secretary-treasurers, Ladd Vincent and Lou Harris.

PRESS CLUB

The Press Club is composed of members of the Highlights staff. It is from this group that the Quill and Scroll members are chosen. The year is highlighted by two banquets, one at the end of each semester. It is at these banquets that the next year's editor is announced. In addition, the Quill and Scroll members and the recipient of the Reporter's Cup are announced. Each month meetings are planned for Press Club members. Usually business and club problems are discussed, occasionally visitors or speakers are invited, and frequently refreshments are served.

During the past semester John Beekman of the News visited the club and engaged in a lengthy discussion on journalism and newspaper work.

When large editions such as the Senior edition must be edited, the Press Club engages in a Stuffing Party, which is held in the Print Shop. It consists of a lengthy meal which enables the members to work overtime in publishing the paper before deadlines. The organization is ably sponsored by the journalism teacher, Mrs. Romaine Pauley.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Bud Rosenberg and Howard Winton; vice-presidents, Paul Hochman and Mike Simmons; secretaries, Betty Jamison and Esther Engstrom; treasurers, Steve Herzbrun and Garee Winnett.

LOS BUENOS VECINOS

Los Buenos Vecinos is the tenth grade division of the Spanish clubs. The group is under the co-sponsorship of Miss Edith Knoles and Mr. Victor Seine. This year, as in the past, efforts were made to bring the students in contact with the Spanish language. During the meeting Spanish was spoken to help accomplish this aim.

At Christmas a banquet was held for the students. The occasion was augmented with a Spanish play and refreshments.

One of the projects carried on by the club was the collection of small change in pig banks. From these the group collected enough money to purchase a fifty dollar war bond for the club through the school.

In line with the defense policy of Beverly Los Buenos Vecinos gave untold help. Playing cards and coat hangers were collected by all members and brought to the school. This project netted much material. Scrap books containing crossword puzzles, quizzes, and other articles were made by the members for the armed forces.

OFFICERS: Presidents, Bill Wiard and Allen Linn; vice-president, Barbara Jeffries; secretaries, Doris Krick and Ann Sheble; treasurers, Allen Linn and Grant Corby.

FEATURES

DEFENSE

As national defense effected changes in the nation's program, Normandy's classrooms also became geared to meet wartime demands.

Students of the home economics department found that food rationing was to restrict their kitchen antics. Culinary schedules were also interrupted when student chefs prepared cookies for the soldiers of a local army camp.

Supplementing the regular social studies were discussions on topics such as "Post War Reconstruction."

The gym department, too, was affected by Mussolini, Hitler, and Hirohito. Normanettes received special instruction in physical fitness, while the boys took "Commando courses." Hundreds of Normans began to work for first aid certificates, and the Boys' and Girls' Emergency Corps were formed.

Even in the shops prospective pilots and mechanics received some basic training, for when they weren't making articles for the Red Cross, they took apart and put back together an automatic airplane motor.

BEVERLY

AND THE WAR

When Beverly went to war in 1941, Generals Saving and Serving immediately took command of the Norman armies.

Under the auspices of Saving, Beverly's clubs and classes contributed to the huge scrap pile in the parking lot. Two school-wide bond drives were also held with gigantic stamp and bond sales which resulted in the presentation of the Treasury Department Minute Men flag to the student body. Carrying on the patriotic peddling, gayly clad Minute Maids vended defense stamps each Thursday noon.

Included in the category of serving was the Campus Clean-up Campaign. In order to aid the manpower shortage problem, captains appointed by the Girls' and Boys' leagues and members of the Knights saw that certain school areas were kept clean.

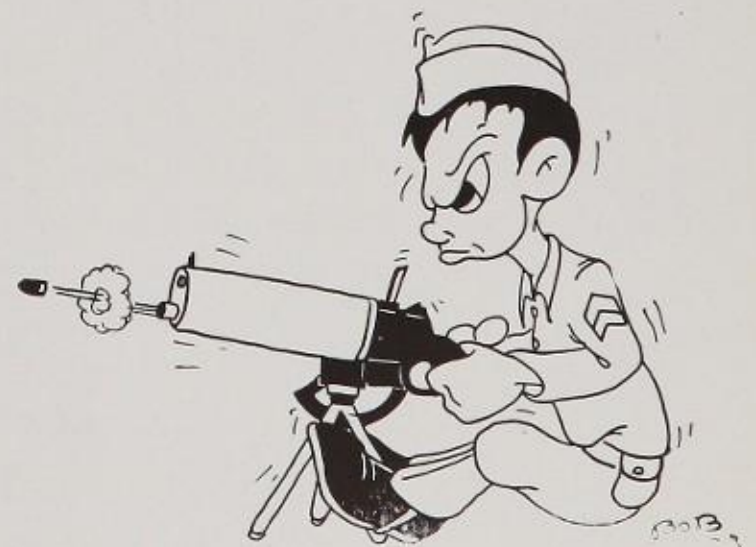

Along with their other duties, reporters of journalism classes raised morale via letters to alumni in the service.

When San Fernando Valley ranchers needed tomato pickers, Normanettes donned denims and responded to the plea. Courses in victory gardening also sprang up, with successful horticulturists receiving five credits for their efforts.

Another feature of the service program was the student body's enlistment in the Junior Red Cross.

Normandy's greatest service, however, was recorded on the red, white, and blue service flag hanging in the auditorium. Fifteen hundred students are supporting the 507 Americans represented by blue stars, who, in turn, are supporting the men represented by 13 gold stars.

Dick —

To a sensational ballplayer, ^{who had} miraculous ^{and was a} fielding; dynamic batter, Dick, I'd just like to say that you are one of the handsomest
"giants" I've ever seen, I can't understand how the girls resist you. I'll be seeing you all summer, you handsome guy

To "slugger"

You were a great hitter but fielding was your meat. Your performance in Santa Monica game was a pleasure to behold. (ha, ha)
Seriously you're a good ball-player and a really great guy. One of the best
Steve Gross

To Dick!

A lad who with the help of Bob Jardine and myself has developed into a fair trombone player. As for tone - well we won't discuss it. As for a ballplayer - just remember the performance at Santa Monica.
All in all a great lad who taught me how to TPIT. Remember to help Jardine all you can as he is a fine protégé.
C'm Babe! Don't forget that if it wasn't for me you would have lived through Mr. Wright and Benjie. Remember me to Willy as I hope to see him soon.
